About Canada: Health and Illness, 3rd Edition Dennis Raphael, 2024-05-02T00:00:00Z Living a long healthy life is one obvious goal of pretty much all of us We are told over and over to change our lifestyles and accept that if we become ill we have likely brought it on ourselves Yet hundreds of studies over the past four decades tell the real story the living and working conditions we experience every day play a determining role in our health How income and wealth housing education and adequate food are distributed whether or not we are employed and the working conditions we experience not medical treatments nor so called wellness lifestyles determine whether we stay healthy or become ill These living and working conditions reflect the social inequalities that are associated with social class gender race and other social locations in Canadian society The third edition of Health and Illness shows how inequitable distribution of the social determinants of health are determined by public policy decisions Dennis Raphael updates information that connects health and illness to the worsening levels of inequality in Canada the rich are getting richer and the rest of us are getting sick This edition also includes a chapter on the social determinants of who got sick and died from COVID 19 The experiences during the COVID 19 pandemic make the clear case that we need to restructure work and living conditions through public policy that more equitably distributes economic resources It is only through such actions that we will be able to promote the health of Canadians and prevent illness in an effective manner

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009

States, Civilisations and the Reset of World Order Richard Higgott, 2021-09-16 This book evaluates the current state of world dis order at a time of growing populism nationalism and pandemic panic It distils the implications of the civilisational

state for world order The retreat of US leadership is mirrored by the decline of both the material and normative liberal multilateral infrastructure it supported Meanwhile the rise of China as a challenger is accompanied in political economic and cultural terms by other emerging powers no longer bound to the norms of 20th century world affairs notably Turkey India China and Russia By emphasising a cultural lens of analysis alongside robust political and economic analysis the author offers a prescriptive agenda for the coming post pandemic age that recognises the changing powers of civilisational state and hybrid non state actors Without overestimating their probabilities he outlines prospects and preconditions for effective inter civilisational dialogue and proposes a series of minimal conditions for a multilateral reset This book will appeal to public and private decision makers the media the educated lay public and civil society actors interested in the rise of civilisational politics and its possible consequences for world affairs It will be of particular interest to students and researchers in the fields of politics international relations international political economy geopolitics strategic studies foreign policy and social psychology
