Roadblocks to Equality Jeffery Klaehn, 2009
Explores women's experiences within contemporary society in a domestic and global context

Mothering in the Age of Neoliberalism Giles Melinda Vandenberg, 2014-03-01 Neoliberal policies and austerity measures have unequivocally altered the landscape of women's lives globally The most detrimental effect has been on mothers as they are faced with increasing responsibility and decreasing resources Despite mothers being the primary producers consumers and reproducers of the neoliberal world their centrality has been largely silenced within economic discourse Thus Mothering in the Age of Neoliberalism calls for a new economic framework to counter the individualized neoliberal model one in which the needs of mothers and children are prioritized This volume provides a crucial starting point By identifying the sources of neoliberal failure toward mothers we can begin to collectively formulate an alternative paradigm in which mothers voices are no longer rendered invisible but rather predominate in the global landscape

International Handbook of Chinese Families Chan Kwok-bun,2012-12-09 Families are the cornerstone of Chinese society whether in mainland China in Taiwan Hong Kong Macao Singapore Malaysia or in the Chinese diaspora the world over Handbook of the Chinese Family provides an overview of economics politics race ethnicity and culture within and external to the Chinese family as a social institution While simultaneously evaluating its own methodological tools this book will set current knowledge in the context of what has been previously studied as well as future research directions It will examine inter family relationships and politics as well as childrearing education and family economics to provide a rounded and in depth view

Gender Relations in Canada Janet Siltanen,Andrea Doucet,2008 This text focuses on how gender differences and inequalities play out in the social lives of men and women throughout the life course Theory is linked with practice through a series of case studies that highlight current research from Canada the United States Britain and Australia

Families Maureen Baker,Bettina Bradbury,2001 Overview 007 086413 2 Softcover 448 pp Copyright 2001 11 2000 41 95 Revised to ensure up to date coverage of key issues in accordance with its high academic reputation while introducing a new reader friendly design Families Changing Trends in Canada has always been a widely adopted text for the first course in Sociology of the Family Maureen Baker s aim as general editor has been to create a Canadian textbook in family studies for post secondary students which incorporates an interdisciplinary historical comparative and mainly structural perspective but which is inclusive of various theoretical perspectives The newly added pedagogical elements will engage students taking the course at universities and community colleges The fourth edition of Families reflects the evolving nature of the family by paying increased attention to gay lesbian and multicultural issues It includes updated statistics and discussion of recent legal reforms providing students with background on three censuses and other demographic surveys new studies in social history recent legal debate and the growing focus on cultural variations in families The fourth edition also offers new theoretical approaches that incorporate poststructuralist and feminist theory in order to help students understand how family gender relations and personal life have been influenced by post industrial or post modern society Most contributors are sociologists but several have formal qualifications or a research background in psychology education women s studies history and social policy The result is a text that shows that family life in Canada as elsewhere is in a constant state of change

Canadian Families 1900-2000 Benjamin Schlesinger,2000 This partially annotated bibliography of 943 articles relating to Canadian Families covers the period from 1900 2000 The concept is unique in its attempt to give the reader an overview of what has been published in English on the major issues relating to Canadian Families during a century Items in the bibliography are organized into 50 topical headings and include articles books reports surveys and other entries from published sources Also included is a selection of relevant websites An introductory essay highlights some of the major events relating to Canadian Families during the 1964 2000 period Historical entries let the reader examine what family life was like during the first 50 years of the 20th century An author index of 968 names allows for quick reference to specific bibliographic items

The Invisible Web, 1991-12-01 Bringing new focus to the subject THE INVISIBLE WEB investigates the family from a feminist perspective Using the lens of gender connections between mothers and daughters fathers and daughters mothers and sons and husbands and wives are analyzed and given new meaning The authors evaluate and redefine family transitions such as divorce single parent and female headed households and remarried couples who are attempting to integrate their respective children with ex spouses and complicated networks of extended kin They also reexamine traditional and emerging roles for women in their early middle and later years Written in an engaging format each chapter features an in depth analysis of how gender shapes the relationship in question This discussion is followed by fascinating vignettes of actual cases from each of the four authors whose approaches reflect different orientations to therapy Based on the work of the Women s Project in Family Therapy which won the 1986 AFTA Award for Distinguished Contribution to Family Therapy this groundbreaking work is an excellent text for courses in family therapy and women s studies an invaluable guide for mental health practitioners and an insightful read for anyone who wishes to explore the invisible web of gender patterns in families

The Shoshone-Bannocks John W. Heaton, 2005 Even in the face of internal disputes between cattlemen and hay cutters the people of Fort Hall found innovative ways such as participation in new religious experiences cultural redefinition and regular community gatherings to manage the contradictions that stemmed from market integration Heaton tells how the Shoshone Bannocks made a meaningful choice between productive commerce and a more typical reliance on subsistence and wage labor Their leaders found new ways to unite disparate bands and kin groups to resist attempts to open reservation land to exploitation by non Indians and through careful land cessions they were able to obtain the capital needed to develop reservation resources themselves

Gender Roles Linda L. Lindsey, Sandra Christy, 1994 Provides a survey of modern gender roles and issues from a sociological perspective which emphasizes interdisciplinary links between gender history psychology biology and cross cultural studies The book also shows the interdependence of gender roles and highlights both male and female issues
