refund fraud is a persistent evolving threat to honest taxpayers and tax administration. It occurs when an identity thief files a fraudulent tax return using a legitimate taxpayer's identifying information and claims a refund. GAO was asked to review IRS's efforts to combat IDT refund fraud. This report, the first of a series, examines 1) what IRS knows about the extent of IDT refund fraud and 2) additional actions IRS can take to combat IDT refund fraud using third party information from, for example, employers and financial institutions. To understand what is known about the extent of IDT refund fraud, GAO reviewed IRS documentation including the Identity Theft Taxonomy. To identify additional actions IRS can take, GAO assessed IRS and SSA data on the timing of W-2s and interviewed SSA officials and selected associations representing software companies, return preparers, payroll companies, and others.

Identity Theft James R. White, 2014-10-30 Tax refund fraud associated with identity theft (IDT) continues to be an evolving threat, one that imposes a serious financial and emotional toll on honest taxpayers and threatens the integrity of the tax administration system. Within the tax system, IDT refund fraud occurs when a refund-seeking identity thief files a fraudulent tax return using a legitimate taxpayer's identifying information. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) estimates that millions of IDT refund fraud attempts claiming tens of billions of dollars in fraudulent refunds occurred in 2013. IDT refund fraud also creates administrative costs. In 2014, IRS has approximately 3,000 people working on cases of IDT victims, more than twice the number of people working on these cases in 2011. IRS recognized refund fraud and IDT as a major challenge affecting the agency in its recently issued strategic plan. This report examines 1) what IRS knows about the extent of IDT refund fraud and 2) additional actions IRS can take to combat IDT refund fraud using third party information from, for example, employers and financial institutions.
