How Do Behavior Science Interventions to Reduce Environmental Impacts Work in The Real World? Christian Andreas Klöckner, Jens Røyrvik, Giuseppe Carrus, Michaela Niederkofler, 2025-11-27 Behavioral sciences encompassing environmental psychology behavioral economics social anthropology and sociology have significantly advanced our understanding of how individual social economic and structural factors contribute to pro environmental actions These insights have facilitated the development of intervention strategies that have yielded impressive results under controlled conditions However the primary challenge lies in scaling these interventions from small scale or laboratory settings to real world applications involving millions determining how these can be adapted and managed by non scientists across diverse populations The objective of this research topic is to compile a series of studies and papers that investigate the real world application of behavioral science interventions This involves analyzing the transition from well funded pilot programs to large scale implementations identifying the necessary conditions and considerations that influence the effectiveness of these interventions when deployed widely By understanding these dynamics the research seeks to transform academic concepts into practical tools that enable individuals to modify their behaviors such as reducing energy consumption thereby addressing significant environmental challenges We welcome contributions that Evaluate which interventions are most effective for specific demographic groups Analyze the role of cultural factors in the success of environmental strategies Investigate the influence of communication channels and spokespersons in intervention adoption Share insights from collaborative efforts between scientists and stakeholders such as NGOs or local governments Discuss inclusivity in behavioral campaigns especially concerning marginalized groups Offer solutions for reaching and influencing reluctant populations Develop tools to simplify the application of behavioral science by non experts Contribute to effective dialogue about behavioral science that resonates with the general public Bridge the gap between theoretical research and practical application needs

Instagram Reels Marketing: Instagram Reels Is The Latest Addition In The Top Marketers Social Media Marketing Arsenal. If you haven't heard about it or are confused about how to get started, we're here to help. Everything you need to know is right here. This is an excellent opportunity to learn how to get started with Instagram Reels Marketing To Interact With A Wider Audience, Fuel Your Branding Endeavors, and Help Brands Cash Upon More ROI. Instagram Reels is the latest format of Instagram Stories that can be used to create and share 15-second video clips either with your followers or if you have a public account with the larger Instagram community via the Explore page. And since video content is all the rage now, top brands are using Instagram Reels for business marketing by sharing short video content to convey their branding and advertising messages on the Explore page as well as with followers to gain massive traction. As it rolled out to the majority of users in August 2020, this feature is being made available across 50 countries, including the U.S., making it an impeccable platform to interact with audiences and fuel your branding endeavors. The timing is also fortuitous given TikTok's uncertain future in the U.S. as the Trump administration weighs either banning the Chinese-owned app entirely or forcing it to sell off its U.S. operations. To put this further into perspective, let's take a look at a few stats. The average time spent on Instagram increased by 3.5% since the launch of Instagram Reels. For example, some published data reflects recent development as follows: Two-thirds of the NBA's franchises have posted at least one Reel since the feature launched in the United States. The Los Angeles Lakers top the league in engagement on Instagram Reels with more than 385,000 engagements and more than 4.1M plays on a single video. Louis Vuitton averages 7M views on each Reel and are still increasing. Sephora France gets more than 453K views on each Reel and more. That is great news for businesses that want to survive and thrive despite the challenging economic conditions. So here we are with our Awesome course: Instagram Reels Marketing.
