Taking Sides: Clashing Views in Gender Jacquelyn W. White, 2008-03-06 This debate style reader is designed to introduce students to controversies in gender studies The readings which represent the arguments of leading psychologists and other social commentators reflect a variety of viewpoints and have been selected for their liveliness and substance and because of their value in a debate framework Students will be exposed to a rich exciting and emotionally and politically charged body of theory research and practice TAKING SIDES GENDER containing 20 issues organized into six parts presents hotly debated issues in contemporary scholarly and public discourse Students will actively develop critical thinking skills by analyzing opposing viewpoints and reach considered judgments The issues will challenge students to consider what is sex what is gender and when is either relevant and why They will discover that what might appear to be binary biologically based distinction is so much more An Instructor s Resource Guide available online only accompanies the book For each issue the following have been provided a synopsis of each author s position on the issue teaching suggestions and multiple choice and essay questions The teaching hints consist of suggestions for generating class discussion around the themes raised by the clashing essays Leadership, Diversity and Inclusion in Organizations Neuza Ribeiro, Daniel Roque Gomes, Kamila Ludwikowska, 2023-06-23 Intercultural Communication in Contexts Judith N. Martin, Thomas K. Nakayama, 2009-02-19 This popular text addresses the core issues and concerns of intercultural communication by integrating three different perspectives the social psychological the interpretive and the critical The dialectical framework integrated throughout the book is used as a lens to examine the relationship of these research traditions This text is unique in its emphasis on the importance of histories popular culture and identities The new edition features expanded discussion on globalization computer mediated technologies and the role of religion in global and domestic contexts and how they relate to intercultural communication Feminist Periodicals, 2004 Fundamentals of Organizational Communication Pamela Shockley-Zalabak, 2006 This text presents the concepts of organizational communication within a unique competency based approach that incorporates personal knowledge interpersonal sensitivity communication skills and ethical values Blending theory analysis and practice more extensively than any other text on the market Fundamentals of Organizational Communication provides an introduction to major organizational communication issues and theories as well as an immediate application of the concepts presented New and Enduring Features A chapter on organizational change and communication has been added giving the topic the individual attention and focus it needs and allowing for better understanding and discussion among students Chapter 11 A new section focusing on crisis communication has been added Since the September 11 2001 attacks many organizations are looking at their crisis communication plans to be sure that they can handle a crisis requiring major strategic communication efforts New cases and essays have been added to increase the understanding of theory The competency based approach integrates theory with opportunities for critical thinking and skill development Original cases in each chapter and in the Putting It All Together sections give students opportunities to apply theory and concepts to real situations Additional cases in the Instructor s Manual also can be used for class discussion and testing A global focus throughout the text assists students in preparing for the changing nature of the workplace Comprehensive coverage of major issues including organizational conflict leadership values diversity technology and ethical behavior offers students a thorough introduction to the current field of organizational communication Praise for Fundamentals of Organizational Communication This text is current and uses relevant real world examples and as a former business manager and consultant for over twenty years I found the currency to be lacking in many other books Sue Easton Rollins College Personally I am a great fan of the author and find her articles and scholarly work to be stimulating and leading edge I found her text to be the same way Sue Easton Rollins College Spectra, 2003 Socially Constructing Communication Gloria J. Galanes, Wendy Leeds-Hurwitz, 2009 The idea for this book originated at NCA's Summer Institute Catching Ourselves in the Act A Collaborative Planning Session to Enrich our Discipline through Social Constructionist Approaches The conference provided the opportunity to interact with like minded others to discuss how social construction approaches influence or should influence our work Another goal for the conference and for this book is to promote social construction approaches within the discipline We need to look forward by focusing on how the social construction perspective transforms our own work When we teach how can we best clarify the social construction principles we believe in and how can we convey the passion we feel for this approach How can we insure that our research practices are faithful to constructionist principles What practices can we or must we adopt to remain faithful to these principles Together the chapters in this volume address such questions with the intention of helping us take the next step forward This book extends the conversation about social constructionism approaches and invites others to participate in that conversation The Songs of Blind Folk Terry Rowden, 2009 How America has constructed the figure of the visually impaired black performer over the last 150 years The Image of the Hero II in Literature, Media, and Society Society for the Interdisciplinary Study of Social Imagery. Conference, 2010 Gender, Race, and Ethnicity in the Workplace: Management, gender, and ethnicity in the United States Margaret Foegen Karsten, 2006 Resource added for the Human Resources program 101161
