Grace, Faith, and Obedience David E. Pratte, 2014-02-05 A study of Bible teaching about Calvinism compared to salvation by obedient faith Includes the following topics Original sin and inherited depravity Election and predestination Grace and mercy of God Falling from grace Imputation of Christ's sinless life Faith only or obedient faith Does Scripture teach that we are born totally depraved because we inherit Adam's sin or are we free moral agents having the free will power to choose between good and evil Are the elect chosen based on unconditional predestination or is forgiveness conditional on our conduct Did Jesus die as atonement for the

sins of all people or just for a limited few What is the relationship between law faith works and grace Can a child of God so sin as to be lost or does the Bible teach the perseverance of the saints eternal security or once saved always saved Faith, Grace, and Conquering the Impossible Brooke Ryan,2017-02-13 Certainly she must be crazy I know they were thinking it I stood there cradling my newborn baby and announced to my family and friends that I wanted to go to medical school OK so I have a baby and I am nineteen and I am not married Cant there be a way to make this happen The baby changed everything but they did not understand what that really meant to me I am not sure I understood where that would lead me but I knew that God had something in mind for me that I could not even begin to comprehend yet He understood that I would need an incentive to find my full potential and this would require digging through the mire of dysfunction that led me to this place He would need to help me learn to truly forgive those who hurt me and to let the anger go He would need to help me pick up the broken pieces in order for me to help others in their brokenness He would have to remake me This is the story of how the Lord brought me through growing up in a divided home plagued by domestic violence and fueled by my stepfathers binge alcoholism how He brought me through single parenthood and how He placed me on the road to achieving my elusive goal The road was difficult and complicated by lots of other annoying things like three operations for cancer and being hit by a car However nothing is impossible for God Through faith and by His Grace He helped me to conquer the impossible

Unashamed Of Grace Emecheta Ofondu,2020-07-25 This book is written to give clarity to the fundamental grounds of the gospel which is grace Grace if properly understood opens up a rich understanding of the entire Bible and empowers the believer to live a wholesome Christian life In explaining this fundamental basis of the gospel the book contrasts markedly between legalism and grace drawing upon tons of scripture to make the distinction When Paul said he was not ashamed of the gospel he actually meant he was not ashamed of grace The legalistic worldview is that which believes that we must act right in order to be blessed by God It is righteousness based on the works of the law The grace view is that which believes that righteousness is given to the believer as a gift by the baptism of the Holy Ghost The power of grace is in the law of faith and not the law of works The exercise of your faith in grace has a law that activates the Christian life in you giving you power over sin and other circumstances Romans 3 27 Where is boasting then It is excluded By what law of works Nay but by the law of faith Faith in grace the finished work of Christ has a law that enables you enjoy your Christian life granting you an abundant life of love joy Peace

God's Strategy in Human History Paul Marston,Roger Forster,2001-07-01 Forster and Marston have delivered a stellar book that attempts to present an exegetical and Scriptural framework for the content presented in the book Instead of beginning from a set of deductive theological assumptions and then attempting to support that system from

Scripture Forster and Marston examine Scripture and attempt to build their case directly from the text. The authors unabashedly admit that their views are very similar to those of Arminian and Wesleyan traditions but they state in the beginning of the book that they do not want to be labeled with these names but want to construct a theology that is in line with the teachings of the first 300 years of Christianity. Anyone who reads their appendix will come to understand that the teachings presented in this book were the orthodox consensus of the early Church for the first 300 years and that it was Augustine who introduced serious deviations into the mainstream orthodox Christianity of his time. Forster and Marston begin by describing the battle that is being waged between God and the spiritual forces that oppose Him. They examine the book of Job and see how this relates to the overall struggle. Then the authors examine the 9th chapter of Romans to see if this book is dealing with election and individual destinies or God's actions within human history. The authors do an excellent job of arguing for their opinion that this chapter is speaking about God's involvement in human history and it deals with God's choosing of one nation or individual over another nation or individual to accomplish His purpose. Other sections of interest in this book are the sections on foreknowledge and predestination and the chapters on faith and works. The section on faith and works was particularly interesting because it relies on much of the teaching of the new perspective which has shed much light on how a 1st century Palestinian Jew would have approached Scriptural issues. The research, argumentation, and exegesis in this book are solid so every chapter is excellent but the ones mentioned above were two of my favorites. Amazon.com

Grace James B. Richards, 2001-12-01. There are many things that we all believe yet do not experience. We all want victory yet few find it. One of our greatest frustrations is that much of what we believe really doesn't work. Too often we spend our lives struggling with the same issues. The feeling of defeat can be agonizing. It is as if we are caught in a maze of formulas and rules. We know there's something missing but we're not sure what. In our search for truth we lose our way among the dos and don'ts of religion. Christians everywhere have been missing the truth about grace and the result is defeat and frustration. In this life-changing book Dr. James Richards unfolds the mystery of grace. You will find the power to overcome instead of repeatedly seeking forgiveness. You will conquer personal issues instead of enduring them. You will discover God's power of effortless change instead of your best effort to change. This reality will transform everything you are experiencing with God. Grace: The Power to Change will bring you into the dimension of Christian living that Jesus called easy and light. This is a must-read for every believer. Prevailing Prayer Eli Wigglesworth, 1900. The Christian System Alexander Campbell, 1901.
