Dear Ms. Reynolds,

When I saw the job opening for the English Teacher position at Morey Middle School I knew I had to apply.

I'm very impressed with your school's reputation for academic excellence and its commitment to holistic student development. With an unwavering dedication to fostering a love for literature and language in young minds, I'm eager to contribute to your mission of nurturing well-rounded individuals who are equipped to make a positive impact on society.

In addition to striving to empower my students to discover their unique strengths, I'm dedicated to ongoing professional development and staying abreast of the latest educational research. With 7+ years of experience teaching English to middle school students in diverse educational settings, I have honed my ability to tailor instruction to meet the individual needs of each student, ensuring that every learner feels supported on their educational journey.

Some of my proudest achievements include:

- Implementing a comprehensive literacy program resulting in a 15% improvement in test scores among my students over the course of one year
- Establishing a creative writing club where students published their own literary magazine, showcasing their original works and fostering a sense of pride and ownership in their writing
- Receiving the "Teacher of the Year" award in 2023 in recognition of outstanding dedication to student success, innovative teaching methods, and positive contributions to the school community

Thank you for considering my application. I'm excited about the opportunity to bring my passion for teaching and my dedication to student success to the team at Morey Middle School. Don't hesitate to reach out to me at (303) 733-2983 if you'd like to further discuss how my skills and experiences align with the needs of your school.

Sincerely,
Benjamin Hughes

How To Write Amazing Cover Letters The Hyperink Team, 2012-02-12

ABOUT THE BOOK If a resume is a window into your past work experience a cover letter is the tool you use to install it Cover letters were once just an after thought something most people used to simply regurgitate their resumes In fact it wasn t until the last decade that cover letters gained wide acceptance and importance Today not only is the cover letter just as important s a resume it can be the deciding factor in whether a hiring manager looks at your resume or throws it in the trash But how do you write the kind of amazing cover letter that will get you in the door How can you create a narrative of your professional experience that makes the HR person sit up and take notice The key is knowing how to present yourself It does not matter if you ve spent 30 years in the work force or are just entering it the fact remains that you need to learn to how convince someone else to interview you

HAPPY READING

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK You ve probably figured out a few mistakes to avoid already but you d probably be surprised at what many employers are turned off by when reading cover letters

Lack of proofreading This is a no brainer but many people often miss them or don t bother to spell check before sending out the cover letter and resume It s always a good idea to ask a friend or family member to check your letter for spelling errors and typos to give you a fresh perspective

Not including the name of the hiring manager If you don t know who is going to read your cover letter and resume try to find out When in doubt call the company and ask who the person in charge of that department is so you can target your letter appropriately

Not writing to an audience Focus each letter on each employer According to Career Builder 44 percent of executives polled said it s common for applicants to use their cover letters to show they ve learned more about the job Doing so can give you an edge against the competition

Failing to sell yourself If you undersell your skills and qualifications you won t make an impression on the reader Don t just talk about your accomplishments give concrete examples

Regurgitating the resume Cover letters weren t meant as a tool to repeat everything that s in your resume It s a tool to build on it and an opportunity to correlate your experience with the job you re applying for Include any training classes awards and recognition you ve received in the past that might give you an edge over the competition Buy a copy to keep reading
