Dunn,2016-04-05 A professional booze writer whose life spins out of control tries to piece it back together by embarking upon an epic wine fueled adventure that takes him to every corner of the U S Part vision quest part guidebook part journey into the bizarre tapestry of American life it will make you laugh make you cry and teach you a whole lot about wine Former Playboy magazine nightlife columnist Dan Dunn has a made a career out of drinking Yet this man s man a connoisseur of beer and whiskey knew next to nothing about one of the major drinks enjoyed the world over wine When a fateful tasting experience coincided with a serious existential crisis Dunn decided to hit the road on a journey of discovery To quench his thirst for knowledge and be able to throw down with the experts he would educate himself about the industry glass by glass from winery to winery in nearly every region in the United States His bold 15 000 mile road trip took Dunn from Sonoma California to Pawley s Island South Carolina where he twirled sniffed and sipped glass after glass of a vast array of wines with vintners savants and celebrities including Kurt Russell and The Most Interesting Man in the World Jonathan Goldsmith Dunn s mission was to transform himself from a heartbroken schlub who barely knew the difference between Merlot and Meritage into a confident connoisseur capable of wowing others simply by swirling some fermented grape juice around in his mouth and pronouncing it troubling yet brilliant In American Wino Dunn shares it all the good the bad the sublime As his wine knowledge grows and becomes more complex he shares it with the reader in the form of digestible actionable nuggets in each chapter It s like a wine tasting course at your local community college extension program only with more sex and less crushing despair An intoxicating blend of travel writing memoir and booze journalism that pairs earthy humor with fine wine for hilarious and enlightening results it is the story of one man s journey to find himself and everyman s journey to better understand the true spirit of this divine elixir      Use of Remote Sensing to Estimate Paddy Area and Production Lea

Rotairo,Asian Development Bank,2019 A substantial portion of the world s rice is produced and consumed in the Asia and Pacific region As much of the region s population depends on rice farming for consumption and livelihood the demand for good quality statistics remains essential for effective policy formulation. Recent advances in remote sensing serve as a viable alternative to traditional methods of compiling agricultural statistics by responding to the emerging data requirements and overall needs of modern agriculture especially for staple commodities such as rice. This publication outlines the procedures, methods and tools developed for generating statistics on paddy rice area and production using remote sensing and GIS techniques. It is intended to encourage and assist national statistical systems in piloting and adopting satellite based techniques as an alternative to existing data collection methods while enabling other interested readers to comprehend whether the adoption of these methodologies can improve the quality and timeliness of agricultural statistics. The handbook also serves as a complement to a massive online open course developed by ADB for crop area estimation.
