The Best 389 Colleges, 2024 The Princeton Review, Robert Franek, David Soto, Stephen Koch, Aaron Riccio, Laura Rose, 2023-08-15. NO ONE KNOWS COLLEGES LIKE THE PRINCETON REVIEW. This comprehensive guide to the nation's best colleges provides in-depth profiles on schools, best-of lists by interest, and tons of helpful student-driven details that will help you or your student choose their best-fit colleges. The Princeton Review's college rankings started in 1992 with surveys from 30,000 students. Over 30 years and more than a million student surveys later, we stand by our claim that there is no single best college, only the best college for you, and that this is the book that will help you find it. STRAIGHT FROM STUDENTS TO YOU: 389 in-depth school profiles based on candid feedback from 165,000 students covering academics, administration, campus life, and financial aid. Insights on unique college character, social scene, and more. Direct quotes from students about their school's professors, campus culture, career services, and more. RANKING LISTS, RATINGS, SCORES: Lists of the top 25 colleges in 50 categories based on students' opinions of academics, campus life, facilities, and much more. Ratings for every school on Financial Aid, Selectivity, and Quality of Life. DETAILED ADMISSIONS INFORMATION: The Inside Word on competitive applications, test scores, tuition, and average indebtedness. Comprehensive information on selectivity, freshman profiles, and application deadlines at each school. Plus, free access to 2 full-length practice tests online: 1 SAT and 1 ACT to help you prep for the important admissions exams part of your admissions journey.

An assessment of industrial employment skill gaps among university graduates Mirza, Faisal Mehmood, Jaffri, Atif Ali, Hashmi, Muhammad Saim, 2014-04-21. The objective of this study is to examine different assessments of employers and students about job skills leading to differences defined as skill employability and perception gaps based on surveys of 100 industrial employers and 151 final year students from 6 universities and postgraduate colleges in the Gujrat Sialkot Gujranwala industrial cluster Factor analysis grouped 24 specific skills into the three interpretable categories communication and business specific skills core employability skills and professional skills The results suggest gaps in all three respects for each of the skill categories Employers were least satisfied with the professional skills of new employees compared to their scores on the importance of these skills Students also scored their own professional skills lower than the importance of these skills in the job market Smaller but similar differences arise for the other skill categories Students generally gave higher nominal scores to the importance of all skills than were given by employers When disaggregated by discipline students in more technical fields engineering computer science and IT which are supposed to possess high level of technical skills claim a shortage of these skills whereas students from economics commerce and business administration indicated they were neither sound in professional skills nor the softer skills Close coordination among all stakeholders through internship programs for students development and timely revision of market oriented curricula and special skill enhancement training programs are recommended steps to enhance productive youth employment in Pakistan Skillings' Mining Review ,1929
