Narratives of Nothing in 20th-Century Literature Meghan Vicks,2017-04-20 The concept of nothing was an enduring concern of the 20th century As Martin Heidegger and Jean Paul Sartre each positioned nothing as inseparable from the human condition and essential to the creation or operation of human existence as Jacques Derrida demonstrated how all structures are built upon a nothing within the structure and as mathematicians argued that zero the number that is also not a number allows for the creation of our modern mathematical system Narratives of Nothing in 20th Century Literature suggests that nothing itself enables the act of narration Focusing on the literary works of Vladimir Nabokov Samuel Beckett and Victor Pelevin Meghan Vicks traces how and why these writers give narrative form to nothing demonstrating that nothing is essential to the creation of narrative that is how our perceptions are conditioned how we make meaning or madness out of the stuff of our existence how we craft our knowable selves and how we exist in language The Knight on the Bridge William Watson,1996 In a crumbling medieval castle stacked in unprosperous land in the South of France the mad lord Caesar lives with his beautiful wife the sex starved but ever hopeful Bonne and a few cynical retainers Caesar is lost in other lands his madness holding the castle even the dry landscape in a state of unreality until the arrival of the young killer Amanieu wakes this isolated household from its dreams Extraordinary events ensue from Bonne s battle with the bees to Caesar s joust against the German giant who seeks revenge on the murder of his brother While man and wife soar to ever greater heights of illusion their daughter Flore travels through myths of her own to a cheerful relinquishment of childhood and an alliance with Amanieu The Reader's Companion to Twentieth-century Writers Peter Parker, Frank Kermode,1995 Rational Emotive Behaviour Therapy in a Nutshell provides a concise overview of a popular therapeutic approach starting with the ABCDE Model of Emotional Disturbance and Change Written by leading REBT specialists Michael Neenan and Windy Dryden the book goes on to explain the core of the therapeutic process Assessment Disputing Homework Working through Promoting self change As an introduction to the basics of the approach this updated and revised edition of Rational Emotive Behaviour Therapy in a Nutshell is the ideal first text and a springboard to further study Impostures al-Ḥarīrī,2021-09-07 One of the Wall Street Journal s Top 10 Books of the Year Winner 2020 Sheikh Zayed Book Award Translation Category Shortlist 2021 National Translation Award Finalist 2021 PROSE Award Literature Category Fifty rogues tales translated fifty ways An itinerant con man A gullible eyewitness narrator Voices spanning continents and centuries These elements come together in Impostures a groundbreaking new translation of a celebrated work of Arabic literature Impostures follows the roguish Ab Zayd al Sar j in his adventures around the medieval Middle East we encounter him impersonating a preacher pretending to be blind and lying to a judge In every escapade he shows himself to be a brilliant and persuasive wordsmith composing poetry palindromes and riddles on the spot Award winning translator Michael Cooperson transforms Arabic wordplay into English wordplay of his own using fifty different registers of English from the distinctive literary styles of authors such as Geoffrey Chaucer Mark Twain and Virginia Woolf to global varieties of English including Cockney rhyming slang Nigerian English and Singaporean English Featuring picaresque adventures and linguistic acrobatics

Impostures brings the spirit of this masterpiece of Arabic literature into English in a dazzling display of translation An English only edition The Music of Meaning Per Aage Brandt, Ulf Cronquist, 2019-08-30 This book is about meaning in music poetry and language it is about signs symbols icons diagrams and more It concerns art and how we communicate how we make sense to each other including the concept of nonsense It is about metaphor and irony It embraces a vast human universe of signification and some of its cognitive machines of meaning making a complex and diverse unfolding of the expressive human mind These 24 essays study different aspects of the way we signify present recent research and models of such processes and discuss the often intricate problems of understanding the relations between expression and thought In evolution music may have preceded the language of words and music remains indirectly present in every temporal unfolding of bodily affective playful meaningful activity We are immersed in meaning and have to listen to it since it constitutes the semiotic reality structuring the world as we experience it
