The Secret Life of EL James Marc Shapiro, 2012-12-17 Everyone wants to know how EL James a middle aged mom of two from the London suburbs became the best selling author of all time with over a million books selling worldwide in less than a year and now a major motion picture Read this book to find out exactly how she did it Inside you ll learn how she wrote her first draft based on Twilight fan fiction and how she rewrote it as the book we know and love today the rough and tumble process of editing and how she assembled a group of dedicated fans herself that brought this smutty masterpiece to the rest of the world Inside these pages is the step by step process by which this middle aged British mother came up with the international best selling erotic romance series that has sold more copies than Harry Potter and Gone with the Wind combined NY Times best selling biographer Marc Shapiro uncovers the inspiration and secrets behind this writing sensation explaining how she did it with exclusive interviews with her editors and early fans Literature and Social Media

Bronwen Thomas, 2020-01-31 From Instapoetry to BookTube contemporary literary cultures and practices are increasingly intertwined with social media In this lively and wide ranging study Bronwen Thomas explores how social media provides new ways of connecting with and rediscovering established literary works and authors while also facilitating the emergence of unique and distinctive forms of creative expression The book takes a 360 approach to the subject combining analysis of current forms and practices with an examination of how social media fosters ongoing collaborative discourse amongst both informal and formal literary networks and demonstrating how the participatory practices of social media have the potential to radically transform how literature is produced shared and circulated The first study of its kind to focus specifically on social media Literature and Social Media provides a timely and engaging account of the state of the art while interrogating the rhetoric that so often accompanies discussion of the new in this context The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature

Gigi Adair, Rebecca Fasselt, Carly McLaughlin, 2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global South and on migration literature s relevance in social contexts outside the academy Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
