Dora Bruder:

Dora Bruder Patrick Modiano, 2014-11-18 2014 Winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature Patrick Modiano opens Dora Bruder by telling how in 1988 he stumbled across an ad in the personal columns of the New Year's Eve 1941 edition of Paris Soir Placed by the parents of a 15 year old Jewish girl Dora Bruder who had run away from her Catholic boarding school the ad sets Modiano off on a quest to find out everything he can about Dora and why at the height of German reprisals she ran away on a bitterly cold day from the people hiding her He finds only one other official mention of her name on a list of Jews deported from Paris to Auschwitz in September 1942 With no knowledge of Dora Bruder aside from these two records Modiano continues to dig for fragments from Dora's past What little he discovers in official records and through remaining family members becomes a meditation on the immense losses of the period lost people lost stories and lost history Modiano delivers a moving account of the ten year investigation that took him back to the sights and sounds of Paris under the Nazi Occupation and the paranoia of the Pétain regime as he tries to find connections to Dora In his efforts to exhume her from the past Modiano realizes that he must come to terms with the specters of his own troubled adolescence The result a montage of creative and historical material is Modiano's personal rumination on loss both memoir and memorial The Search Warrant Patrick Modiano, 2000 A young Jewish girl ran away from a Paris convent in 1941 at the height of Nazi repression The author discovers in official documents and through remaining family members some of the facts relating to this infinitely sad and true story The Search Warrant Patrick Modiano, 2026-02-05 WINNER OF THE NOBEL PRIZE IN LITERATURE Missing a young girl Dora Bruder age 15 One winter night in 1941 a Jewish girl runs away from her Paris boarding school Stumbling across her disappearance listed in an old newspaper Patrick Modiano finds himself propelled on a quest to exhume her fate His search will go on to last a decade Little more will be found just fragments of a lost family history a sense of the dark streets of occupied Paris Dora's name on a list of those sent to Auschwitz And the spectre of Modiano's own troubled past from which he can no longer look away One of France's most important novelists The New York Times A spokesman for the disappeared Guardian Dora Bruder Yolanda Fernández Romero, 2023-04-07 What should we learn from Dora Bruder the novelistic investigation by Patrick Modiano Find everything you need to know about this work in a complete and detailed analysis You will find in particular in this card A complete summary A presentation of the main characters such as Dora Bruder Ernest and Cécile Bruder Albert and Patrick Modiano An analysis of the specificities of the work An autofiction The investigation The role of the city and The duty to remember A reference analysis to quickly understand the meaning of the work Present Pasts Dervila Cooke, 2005 This is the first in depth study of the twelve Modiano texts specifically concerned with life writing in autobiographical and biographical cum historiographical projects The texts covered range from La Place de la Toile 1968 through to La Petite Bijou 2001 Close textual analysis is combined with a theoretical approach based on current thinking in autobiography biography and reader response Modiano's use of autofiction and biofiction is analysed

in the light of his continuing obsession with both personal trauma and History as well as his problematic relationship with his paternally inherited Jewish links His view of identity of self and other is thus discussed in relation to a particular literary and socio historical context French postmodern post World War II and post Holocaust
