Andreassen, Hans-Otto Sano, Siobhán McInerney-Lankford, 2017-05-26 Methodological discussion has largely been neglected in human rights research with legal scholars in particular tending to address research methods and methodological reflection implicitly rather than explicitly This book advances thinking on human rights methodology offering instruction and guidance on the methodological options for human rights research Political Research Sandra Halperin, Oliver Heath, 2017 This title equips students of politics and international relations with the analytical skills and resources to evaluate understand and criticise research findings in political research as well as the practical skills to carry out their own research Social History Miles Fairburn, 1999-05-26 Drawing examples from some of the classic works in the discipline Miles Fairburn examines the nature varieties schools and evolution of social history Intended for advanced students and practising social historians who see social history as a problem solving discipline the methodological problems examined include the absence of social categories fragmenting evidence the appraisal of rival explanations the use of socially constructed evidence to substantiate claims about realities how to avoid presentism and when its practice is justifiable how to distinguish important causes and how to tell similarities from differences Music and Knowledge: A Performer's Perspective Per Dahl, 2019-02-18 FREELY AVAILABLE ONLINE AS OPEN ACCESS BOOK This book illustrates the acquisition of knowledge in a musician s performative practice and how this can contribute to the development of Artistic Research Using a broad understanding of knowledge the first part of the book presents aspects of the practitioner knowledge a musician develops through daily exercises and performances Technical and practical skills creativity and music reading are central topics Part II describes four different methodologies of knowledge accumulation First is the hypothetico deductive method music as object Then the author asks Where is the musical work After an introduction to semiotics the question that must follow is Is music a language Following up methodologies focusing on intersubjective and contextual topics the presentation of hermeneutics generates the question What happens to the music when you are listening Being the most subjective phenomenology is the last methodology to be presented The question it poses is Are analysis and interpretation two sides of the same coin Artistic research is a new perspective in knowledge acquisition and the performing artist is the pivot point The obvious insight positioning music beyond the score is elaborated into a critique of the representational theory as a relevant ontological discourse in music As an alternative the potential in embodied meaning theories is discussed through cognitive linguistic and artistic approaches Artistic expressions convey the subjective practitioner knowledge based on the difference between the objective sign and the intersubjective expression This makes music as communication the ultimate topic In conclusion understanding the meaning construction and the conditions of artistic content are both of importance in artistic research
