business, 2020-01-10 Despite being one of the most traditional industries, the luxury sector is highly dynamic and rapidly changing, influenced by new ideas, aspects, fields, technologies and generations. One of such influences is the prevalence of digital technology and social media. It challenges a number of major premises of luxury brands, including exclusivity, status, authenticity and sensory experience. This special issue of Market and Organizations explores luxury consumption and production in a digital and experiential era. Authors take a multidisciplinary and holistic perspective to explore the role of digital customer experience in rethinking the luxury industry in the future. The objective is to advance knowledge on luxury in marketing and economy by bringing together international scholars' research in French and English from different disciplines and practitioners working in the field of luxury. Mixed Feelings

Naomi Shimada, Sarah Raphael, 2019-09-19 Social media has changed our aspirations and the way we see ourselves. It has created a new layer of perfectionist pressure in every aspect of our lives but equally enabled us to share resources, opinions, help and information more quickly than ever before. We love it, we hate it, we can't get off it. We have mixed feelings. Naomi Shimada and Sarah Raphael have spent the last decade building successful careers on the internet. Sarah's work as a writer and editor brings her into contact with the outer reaches and inner workings of online content, graph upon graph revealing to her what women most want to read today. Naomi is a model, host and writer and talks to people all over the world through her sunny, colourful Instagram account which has helped girls struggling with body image and confidence issues. Having experienced extreme online highs and lows both personally and professionally, in Mixed Feelings Naomi and Sarah explore what social media is doing to our minds, bodies and hearts through wide-ranging essays and discussions featuring diverse perspectives and voices. A heartfelt resource for those who struggle to fit into a box, Mixed Feelings is a celebration of difference and a challenge to the status quo. It is a bulwark against the onslaught of perfectionist and aspirational images that we are bombarded with on a daily basis. The Photobook: A History
