cheerfulness as invariable as with regrets so poignant and so fresh it was possible to be I have SUCH a girl crush on Elinor Dashwood Good kind practical Elinor empathetic compassionate to a fault and as capable of deep feeling as her demonstrative mother and sister Marianne She was the ideal prism through which to experience this story of the love and devotion between sisters through romantic trials and disappointments I loved this book to pieces I never thought a novel by Jane Austen could leave me in so much suspense put me through so much agony for the fate of its characters and make me laugh out loud so often I didn't know Austen could be so sharp witty and sarcastic Her novel contains very little of what we would think of as action Plot details are revealed through conversations between different characters Oh those conversations Austen's insight into human nature and foibles was absolutely first rate Her novel left me wondering what effusive Mrs Jenningses selfish Mr Willoughbys and sly Lucy Steeles she must have known in real life I never could get through an Austen novel before trying this audiobook The formal language in which she wrote left me befuddled sure I was missing the meanings beneath the surface of her words Juliet Stevenson's incredible narration freed me from that difficulty Her performance was fresh nuanced and lively teasing out all the irony humor and pathos of the words I finished the book with a little sigh of happiness for Elinor and Marianne and regret to have to leave their world so soon I cannot wait to listen to more Jane Austen
