The Gift of Memoir Diane Taylor, 2015-01-06 The Gift of Memoir is a wonderful guide for Memoir Writing I especially appreciate how Taylor examines the memoirs of historic well known or highly controversial people for examples of good craft and content and to illustrate the many quirks and magnificence of the human journey Pegi Evers author of Ancient Spirit Rising Every writer can benefit from reading Diane Taylor's wonderfully clear down to earth practical and inspiring book But for the memoirist in particular Taylor's expertise is invaluable Philip Marchand National Post columnist and author of Ghost Empire How the French Almost Conquered North America The Gift of Memoir is Diane Taylor's gift to writers of every kind but especially those with a personal or family story to tell In words that are themselves a stellar example of literary craftsmanship Taylor shows writers how to show up open up and write She shares moving stories from her own adventurous life Her short chapters full of practical advice and inspiring examples cover such topics as Establishing a writing ritual Why write memoir Joining a writing community for diversity and connection Telling the truth when you aren't sure Journaling to unlock the soul How to approach traumatic events Four strategies to retrieve memories The ingredients of a good anecdote The several senses not just five for vivid writing How to choose a form that fits your writing The revision process Iran Awakening Shirin Ebadi, Azadeh Moaveni, 2011-05-18 The moving inspiring memoir of one of the great women of our times Shirin Ebadi winner of the 2003 Nobel Peace Prize and advocate for the oppressed whose spirit has remained strong in the face of political persecution and despite the challenges she has faced raising a family while pursuing her work Best known in this country as the lawyer working tirelessly on behalf of Canadian photojournalist Zara Kazemi raped tortured and murdered in Iran Dr Ebadi offers us a vivid picture of the struggles of one woman against the system The book movingly chronicles her childhood in a loving untraditional family her upbringing before the Revolution in 1979 that toppled the Shah her marriage and her religious faith as well as her life as a mother and lawyer battling an oppressive regime in the courts while bringing up her girls at home Outspoken controversial Shirin Ebadi is one of the most fascinating women today She rose quickly to become the first female judge in the country but when the religious authorities declared women unfit to serve as judges she was demoted to clerk in the courtroom she had once presided over She eventually fought her way back as a human rights lawyer defending women and children in politically charged cases that most lawyers were afraid to represent She has been arrested and been the target of assassination but through it all has spoken out with quiet bravery on behalf of the victims of injustice and discrimination and become a powerful voice for change almost universally embraced as a hero Her memoir is a gripping story a must read for anyone interested in Zara Kazemi's case in the life of a remarkable woman or in understanding the political and religious upheaval in our world IRONSIDES' PERIL Michael D. state's regulatory regimes. Since the 1980s, political, economic, and intellectual forces have driven Iran's creative class toward increasingly original forms of artmaking, not meant for official venues. Instead, these art forms appear in private homes with trusted audiences, derelict buildings, leftover urban zones, and remote natural sites. While many of these venues operate independently, others are fully sanctioned by the state. Drawing on interviews with over a hundred artists, gallerists, theater experts, musicians, and designers, Pamela Karimi throws into sharp relief the extraordinary art and performance activities that have received little attention outside Iran. Attending to nonconforming curatorial projects, independent guerrilla installations, escapist practices, and tacitly subversive performances, Karimi discloses the push and pull between the art community and the authorities and discusses myriad instances of tentative coalition as opposed to outright partnership or uncompromising resistance. Illustrated with more than 120 full-color images, this book provides entry into unique artistic experiences without catering to voyeuristic curiosity around Iran's often-perceived underground culture. New Histories of Art in the Global

Postwar Era Flavia Frigeri, Kristian Handberg, 2021-03-24. This book maps key moments in the history of postwar art from a global perspective. The reader is introduced to a new globally oriented approach to art, artists, museums, and movements of the postwar era, 1945-70. Specifically, this book bridges the gap between historical artistic centers such as Paris and New York and peripheral loci. Through case studies, previously unknown networks, circulations, divides, and controversies are brought to light. From the development of Ethiopian modernism to the showcase of Brazilian modernity, this book provides readers with a new set of coordinates and a reassessment of well-trodden art historical narratives around modernism. This book will be of interest to scholars in art historiography, art history, exhibition, and curatorial studies, modern art, and globalization. The
