Ethnic Diversity and Reconciliation Arend van Dorp, 2022-10-31 Forces of division conflict and fear threaten to separate us from the neighbor who does not look act or pray like us However followers of Christ are charged with embodying a unity that celebrates difference rather than fleeing from it Ethnic Diversity and Reconciliation explores the implications of the church's radical call to inclusive community in the context of Myanmar's long history of ethnic conflict Dr Arend van Dorp outlines the theological foundations for understanding the church's mandate as a diverse and unified missional body while also engaging the very real challenges posed to this mandate by the cultural religious and historical realities faced by Christians in Myanmar He demonstrates that while the challenges are vast so is the potential for transformation and reconciliation when the church takes up its mantle and bears faithful witness to God's love in a fractured world The

Economic Transition in Myanmar After 1988 Kōichi Fujita, Fumiharu Mieno, Ikuko Okamoto, 2009 For many years Myanmar operated an inward looking economic system built on import substitution Ultimately this policy failed leaving behind inefficient state economic enterprises and widespread poverty Political unrest in 1988 led a newly installed military government to liberalize the economy opening it to foreign investment and private participation in trade This move towards a market economy was in line with world wide trends but political instability forced the country to follow a course different from neighboring countries By analyzing economic policies and performance across the economic spectrum this book presents an overall picture of economic development in Myanmar between 1988 and the early 2000s The authors synthesize both macro and micro level data to overcome some of the limitations of unreliable national statistics and show how the government attempted to deal with two key issues it faced The first was how to reform the inefficient socialistic economic system in conformity with a market economy and the second was how to develop the agricultural and underdeveloped economy to alleviate mass poverty The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications, 2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume
