Black Wave Michelle Tea:

Black Wave Michelle Tea, 2016-08-22 This metaliterary end of the world novel is scary funny and genre bending wonderfully strange yet completely universal and true Jill Soloway creator of Transparent Desperate to quell her addiction to drugs and alcohol disastrous romance and nineties San Francisco Michelle heads south to LA But soon it s officially announced that the world will end in one year and life in the sprawling metropolis becomes increasingly weird While living in an abandoned bookstore dating Matt Dillon and keeping an eye on the encroaching apocalypse Michelle begins a new novel a meta textual exploration to complement her vows to embrace maturity and responsibility But as she tries to make queer love and art without succumbing to self destructive impulses the boundaries between storytelling and everyday living begin to blur and Michelle wonders how much she ll have to compromise her artistic process if she s going to properly ride out doomsday

The Default World Naomi Kanakia, 2024-05-28 A trans woman sets out to exploit a group of wealthy roommates only to fall under the spell of their glamorous hedonistic lifestyle in tech bubble San Francisco Years after fleeing San Francisco and getting sober Jhanvi has made a life for herself working at a grocery co op and saving for her surgeries But when her friend and sometimes more Henry mentions that he and his techie festival goer friends spent 100 000 to transform a warehouse basement into a sex dungeon Jhanvi starts wondering if there s a way to exploit these gullible idiots She returns to San Francisco hatching a plan to marry Henry for his company s generous healthcare benefits Jhanvi enters a world of beautiful decadent fire eaters and their lavish sex parties But as her pretensions to cynicism and control start to fade she develops a Gatsbyesque attraction to these happy young people and their bold claims of unconditional love But do any of her privileged new friends really like or accept her Her financial needs expose the limits of a community built on limitless self expression and soon she has to choose between doing what s right and doing what s right for her This darkly funny novel skewers privileged leftist millennial tech culture and asks whether found family is just another of the 21st century s broken promises

Against Memoir Michelle Tea, 2018-05-08 The PEN Award winning essay collection about queer lives Gorgeously punk rock rebellious The A V Club The razor sharp but damaged Valerie Solanas a doomed lesbian biker gang recovering alcoholics and teenagers barely surviving at an ice creamery these are some of the larger than life yet all too human figures populating America s fringes Rife with never ending fights and failures theirs are the stories we too often try to forget But in the process of excavating and documenting these queer lives Michelle Tea also reveals herself in unexpected and heartbreaking ways Delivered with her signature honesty and dark humor this is the first ever collection of journalistic writing by the author of How to Grow Up and Valencia As she blurs the line between telling other people s stories and her own she turns an investigative eye to the genre that s nurtured her entire career memoir and considers the price that art demands be paid from life Eclectic and wide ranging A palpable pain animates many of these essays as well as a raucous joy and bright curiosity The New York Times Queer counterculture beats loud and proud in Tea s stellar collection Publishers

Weekly starred The best essay collection I've read in years The New Republic Winner of the PEN Diamonstein Spielvogel Award for the Art of the Essay The Environmental Apocalypse Jakub Kowalewski, 2022-11-16 This volume brings together scholars working in diverse traditions of the humanities in order to offer a comprehensive analysis of the environmental catastrophe as the modern day apocalypse Drawing on philosophy theology history literature art history psychoanalysis as well as queer and decolonial theories the authors included in this book expound the meaning of the climate apocalypse reveal its presence in our everyday experiences and examine its impact on our intellectual imaginative and moral practices Importantly the chapters show that eco apocalypticism can inform progressively transformative discourses about climate change In so doing they demonstrate the fruitfulness of understanding the environmental catastrophe from within an apocalyptic framework carving a much needed path between two unsatisfactory approaches to the climate disaster first the conservative impulse to preserve the status quo responsible for today's crisis and second the reckless acceptance of the destructive effects of climate change This book will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars interested in the contributions of both apocalypticism and the humanities to contemporary ecological debates Maggie Terry Sarah Schulman, 2018-09-11 Maggie Terry is the most beautiful most bitter most sweet and all around best detective novel I've read in years Precise insightful heartbreaking and page turning Sara Gran author of The Infinite Blacktop Post rehab Maggie Terry is single minded trying to keep her head down in New York City There's a madman in the White House the subways are constantly delayed summer is relentless and neighborhoods all seem to blend together Against this absurd backdrop Maggie wants nothing more than to slowly rebuild her life in hopes of being reunited with her daughter But her first day on the job as a private investigator lands her in the middle of a sensational new case actress strangled If Maggie is going to solve this mystery she'll have to shake the ghosts dead NYPD partner vindictive ex steadfast drug habit that have long ruled her life Sarah Schulman is a literary chronicler of the marginalized and subcultural focusing on queer urban life She is the author of several books including The Gentrification of the Mind Conflict Is Not Abuse and The Cosmopolitans She is Distinguished Professor of the Humanities at CUNY and teaches creative writing at the College of Staten Island Skye Papers Jamika Ajalon, 2021-06-08 Twentysomething and restless Skye flits between cities and stagnant relationships until she meets Scottie a disarming and disheveled British traveler and Pieces an enigmatic artist living in New York The three recognize each other as kindred spirits Black punk whimsical revolutionary and fall in together leading Skye on an unlikely adventure across the Atlantic They live a glorious subterranean existence in 1990s London making multimedia art throwing drug fueled parties and eking out a living by busking in Tube stations until their existence is jeopardized by the rise of CCTV and policing In fluid and unrelenting prose Jamika Ajalon's debut novel explores youth poetry and what it means to come terms with queerness Skye Papers is an imaginative episodic group portrait of a transatlantic art scene spearheaded by people of color and of the fraught dystopian reality of increasing state surveillance Margaret and the Mystery of the

Missing Body Megan Milks, 2021-09-14 A delightfully weird and very queer reimagining of 90s YA nostalgia Autostraddle
Queer dynamite Kristen Arnett author of Mostly Dead Things Finalist for the 2022 Lambda Literary Award in Transgender Fiction Meet Margaret At age twelve she was head detective of the mystery club Girls Can Solve Anything Margaret and her three best friends led exciting lives solving crimes having adventures and laughing a lot But now that she's entered high school the club has disbanded and Margaret is unmoored she doesn't want to grow up and she wishes her friends wouldn't either Instead she opts out developing an eating disorder that quickly takes over her life When she lands in a treatment center Margaret finds her path to recovery twisting sideways as she pursues a string of new mysteries involving a ghost a hidden passage disturbing desires and her own vexed relationship with herself Margaret and the Mystery of the Missing Body reimagines nineties adolescence mashing up girl group series choose your own adventures and chronicles of anorexia in a queer and trans coming of age tale like no other An interrogation of girlhood and nostalgia dysmorphia and dysphoria this debut novel puzzles through the weird ever evasive questions of growing up Little F Michelle Tea, 2025-10-14 One of LitHub's Most Anticipated Books of The Year A new epic novel about a teenage queer runaway from cult classic author of Blackwave and Valencia Michelle Tea In Spencer's fantasies the breezy queer streets of Provincetown MA are utopia a place where he can be free Yet when a violent attack in his suburban Arizona schoolyard sends him to the hospital he decides queer utopia can't wait And one night with the help of his best friend the teenage witch Joy he hitches a ride to find it The cross country road odyssey that follows brings Spencer from new moon rituals in Arizona canyons to Texas bus stations from the luxe drag stages of Houston's Montrose district to the jazz soaked streets of the French Quarter and beyond This new novel from Michelle Tea tells the story by turns raw romantic and sweet of a sheltered boy taking his first leap into queer life among all the complicated queers who live it In Case of Emergency Mahsa Mohebbi, 2021-11-30 In this prize winning Iranian novel a spoiled and foul mouthed young woman looks to get high while her family and city fall to pieces What do you do when the world is falling apart and you're in withdrawal Disillusioned wealthy and addicted to opium Shadi wakes up one day to apocalyptic earthquakes and a dangerously low stash Outside Tehran is crumbling yuppies flee in bumper to bumper traffic as skaters and pretty boys rise up to claim the city as theirs Cross dressed to evade hijab laws Shadi flits between her dysfunctional family and depressed friends all in search of her next fix Mahsa Mohebbi's groundbreaking novel about Iranian counterculture is a satirical portrait of the disaster that is contemporary life Weaving together gritty vernacular and cinematic prose In Case of Emergency takes a darkly humorous scathing look at the authoritarian state global capitalism and the gender binary The Women's Movement Today Leslie Heywood, 2006 The second wave of feminism of Gloria Steinem and Betty Friedan has given way to the third generation These volumes introduce this wave's key issues members' visions and writings with more than 70 contributors offering essays on subjects from abortion to zines Knocking Myself Up Michelle Tea, 2022-08-02 From PEN America Award winner 2021 Guggenheim fellow and beloved literary and tarot icon
