

A top-down view of a wooden desk. In the upper left, a portion of a white computer keyboard is visible. To its right is a yellow folder with a red ribbon. In the center, a blue clipboard holds a white sheet of paper with a gold clip at the top. The paper features the text 'FAFSA' in large, bold, black letters, followed by a horizontal line and the text 'Free Application for Federal Student Aid' in a smaller, bold, black font. To the left of the clipboard, several sheets of paper are stacked, with the top sheet showing a grid pattern and some text. A pen is partially visible on the right side of the desk.

The Strategic Guide to Shaping Your Student Affairs Career Sonja Ardoin, 2026-02-05 This updated practical guide invites readers to employ a personalized framework for strategically shaping their professional path in higher education and student affairs and related careers. Drawing on five key career strategy components: lifelong learning, the job search, and extending your experiences, networking, or connecting, self-reflection, and well-being, and planning for professional development, Ardoin provides comprehensive, applicable recommendations for career success. This second edition features a significant amount of new content, including 20 distinctive stories of how higher education and student affairs and adjacent professionals are applying the five components in their own unique career trajectories. The story contributors' broad representation of identities, experiences, institutional types, functional areas, and geographic regions showcases the enduring utility of the career strategy components. Prospective early-career and seasoned practitioners will find this book a worthwhile resource as they navigate career planning, career development, and career pivots.
