Remember that an artist's drawing is not a finished work. The finished work is what you see in the world.

PROBLEM 1.1

General Narrative Drawing

Make a drawing in which you combine several figures in motion in the center of your picture. In this exercise, you can take any of the previous studies. Use a black ink marker for drawing of a large figure, and a pencil for the smaller figures. Consider the idea of walking (Figure 1.10) as your model for the study you have done in walking and take notes on the steps. Think about the way the small figures move in a similar pattern. The movement of the small figures of the great figure. Remember to check the drawing from the front and the back in the end.

PROBLEM 1.2

Concrete Form

Make a detailed drawing of a concrete form in motion in motion. Use the form as an example of the concept of form in the book drawing (see Figure 1.11), in which the side view continues with the top and side view to create a unified, single continuous form. Use a pencil and ink to create a unified, single continuous form. Use a pencil and ink to create a unified, single continuous form.
