Memories Of Peking:

Memories of Peking Haiyin Lin, Nancy Ing, Bangyuan Qi, 1992-01 In five stories with a continuing cast of characters and many of the qualities of a novel Memories of Peking South Side Stories portrays Peking of the 1930s as seen through the eyes of a little girl These stories differ greatly from many other books on life in China whether about past times or the present day in that they neither dwell on politics nor try to propound beliefs of any kind The stories are simple direct and personal The reader experiences life in Peking through the eyes and innocent mind of the child The author is well known for her perception and humor She handles with great sensitivity and lyricism the sense of loss and bewilderment that arouses the child's awareness of the uncertainties of human relationships even of life itself and which finally catapults her away from childhood joys into the sorrows of the adult world Memories of Peking, 2002 Memories of Peking Lin

Hai-yin, 2020-03-15 Through the keen eyes and curious mind of a young girl Ying tzu we are given a glimpse into the adult world of Peking in the 1920s The five sequential stories in this collection can be read as either stand alone pieces or as a novel due to the cleverly constructed themes and character development Exploring ideas of loss and bewilderment Lin Haiyin carefully captures the transition from childhood to adulthood Shielded by a child's innocence we are taken on a journey of discovery as Ying tzu grapples with the uncertainties of human relationships as well as her developing awareness of the world around her Poignant and poetic it is hard not to be moved by Memories of Peking South Side Stories Memories of
