Memories Algernon Bertram Freeman-Mitford Redesdale,1915 The China Journal of Science & Arts ,1925 For the Glory Duncan Hamilton,2016-05-10 Hamilton is a guarantee of quality Financial Times Duncan Hamilton s compelling biography puts flesh on the legend and paints a vivid picture of not only a great athlete but also a very special human being Daily Mail The untold and inspiring story of Eric Liddell hero of Chariots of Fire from his Olympic medal to his missionary work in China to his last brave years in a Japanese work camp during WWII Many people will remember Eric Liddell as the Olympic gold medalist from the Academy Award winning film Chariots of Fire Famously Liddell would not run on Sunday because of his strict observance of the Christian sabbath and so he did not compete in his signature event the 100 meters at the 1924 Paris Olympics He was the greatest sprinter in the world at the time and his choice not to run was ridiculed by the British Olympic committee his fellow athletes and most of the world press Yet Liddell triumphed in a new event winning the 400 meters in Paris Liddell ran and lived for the glory of his God After winning gold he dedicated himself to missionary work He travelled to China to work in a local school and as a missionary He married and had children there By the time he could see war on the horizon Liddell put Florence his pregnant wife and children on a boat to Canada while he stayed behind his conscience compelling him to stay among the Chinese He and thousands of other westerners were eventually interned at a Japanese work camp Once imprisoned Liddell did what he was born to do practice his faith and his sport He became the moral center of an unbearable world He was the hardest worker in the camp he counseled many of the other prisoners he gave up his own meager portion of meals many days and he organized games for the children there He even raced again For his ailing malnourished body it was all too much Liddell died of a brain tumor just before the end of the war His passing was mourned around the world and his story still inspires In the spirit of The Boys in the Boat and Unbroken For the Glory is both a compelling narrative of athletic heroism and a gripping story of faith in the darkest circumstances Memories Algernon Bertram Freeman-Mitford Baron Redesdale,1915 Sierra Educational News ,1930 Modern Chinese Literature ,1993 China Review International ,1996 China Journal of Science and Arts ,1925 Renditions ,1986 The Origins of the Cultural Revolution Roderick MacFarquhar,1983 The second volume in a trilogy which examines the politics economics culture and international relations of China from the mid 1950s to the mid 1960s this volume tells the story of the Great Leap Forward Mao s utopian attempt to propel China economically and socially into the twenty first century by mobilizing his nation s greatest asset its disciplined manpower The effort produced economic disaster and political dissension and helped to precipitate the Sino Soviet split Today s leaders point to it as the beginning of two decades of national trauma which ended only after the death of Mao and the purge of the Gang of Four Those leaders have recently authorized the release of a mass of new documentation in the form of political reminiscences economic statistics and leaders speeches This volume is the first scholarly work to use the new material comprehensively weaving it into the narrative along with the contemporary record and the revelations published in Red Guard newspapers during the cultural revolution The result is the most detailed account and analysis to date of what went wrong and why

Annals & Memoirs of the Court of Peking Sir Edmund Backhouse, John Otway Percy Bland, 1914 The enduring interest displayed by many readers in the character of China's great Empress Dowager Tz Hsi and the generous appreciation accorded to our work on her life and reign have prompted the belief that the present work covering a wider stretch of space and time should prove interesting and of some value to those who desire to study the causes immediate and remote of recent and current events in the Far East Until we understand something of the mainsprings of thought and action which determine the governance and daily life of a people something of their atavistic memories and instincts of their social religious and economic systems it is not possible to sympathise with them in their perils and crises of change or to render them the assistance which appreciation of their motives and intelligent anticipation of their needs might supply
