Netflix, Dark Fantastic Genres and Intergenerational Viewing Djoymi Baker, Jessica Balanzategui, Diana Sandars, 2023-07-04 Focusing on Netflix's child and family orientated platform exclusive content this book offers the first exploration of a controversial genre cycle of dark science fiction horror and fantasy television under Netflix's Family Watch Together TV tag Using a ground breaking mix of methods including audience research interface and textual analysis the book demonstrates how Netflix is producing dark family telefantasy content that is both reshaping child and family friendly TV genres and challenging earlier broadcast TV models around child appropriate family viewing It illuminates how Netflix encourages family audiences to watch together through intergenerational dynamics that work on and offscreen The chapters in this book explore how this Netflixication of family television developed across landmark examples including Stranger Things A Series of Unfortunate Events The Dark Crystal Age of Resistance and even Squid Game The book outlines how Netflix is consolidating a new dark family terrain in the streaming sector which is unsettling older concepts of family viewing leading to considerable audience and critical confusion around target audiences and viewer expectations This book will be of particular interest to upper level undergraduates graduates and scholars in the fields of television studies screen genre studies childhood studies and cultural studies

Value in a Digital World Francisco J. López Lubián, José Esteves, 2017-11-06 An in depth examination of the concept of value in a digital world an analysis of a range of digital business models and a framework for assessing the value of digital businesses Assessing the value of traditional business was easy There are hard well tested metrics and tangible measurable assets you can literally kick the tyres of But how do you measure the value of something that consists of little more than bits of information brand awareness and a compelling idea In the winner takes all digital world how do you know if this idea is one that will attract billions of dedicated users or a few thousand fleeting trialists And most importantly how do you assess whether any given business model is robust enough to make billions or flawed in a way that will lose millions Lopez Lubian and Esteves look at what economic value means in a digital world and argue for a shift from traditional value metrics to digital value metrics Through high profile case studies they examine the process of valuation in the digital world examining the challenges of making objective judgments from subjective information and how to assess the value of data Next they analyse in depth a number of different digital business models from the perspective of delivering value to investors stakeholders and society at large Finally they present a framework model for assessing value in digital business
