Beginning Google Maps Applications with Rails and Ajax Andre Lewis, Cameron Turner, Jeffrey Sambells, Michael Purvis, 2007-05-02 The Google Maps API remains one of the showcase examples of the Web 2.0 development paradigm Beginning Google Maps Applications with Rails and Ajax From Novice to Professional is the first book to comprehensively introduce the service from a developer perspective showing you how you can integrate mapping features into your Rails driven web applications Proceeding far beyond simplistic map display you'll learn how to draw from a variety of data sources such as the U S Census Bureau's TIGER Line data and Google's own geocoding feature to build comprehensive geocoding services for mapping many locations around the world. The book also steers you through various examples that show how to encourage user interaction such as through pinpointing map locations, adding comments, and building community-driven maps. You'll want to pick up a copy of this book because this is the first book to comprehensively introduce the Google Maps application development using the Rails development framework. You'll be introduced to the very latest changes to the Google Maps API embodied in the version 2 release. It is written by four developers actively involved in the creation of location-based mapping services. For additional info, please visit the author's reference site for this book.

Don't Travel without iPhone Jimmy Chang, Beginning Google Maps Applications with PHP and Ajax Jeffrey Sambells, Michael Purvis, Cameron Turner, 2007-12-22. Until recently building interactive web-based mapping applications has been a cumbersome affair. This changed when Google released its powerful Maps API. Beginning Google Maps Applications with PHP and Ajax was written to help you take advantage of this technology in your own endeavors, whether you're an enthusiast playing for fun or a professional building for profit. This book covers version 2 of the API, including Google's new Geocoding service. Authors Jeffrey Sambells, Cameron Turner, and Michael Purvis get rolling with examples that require hardly any code at all, but you'll quickly become acquainted with many facets of the Maps API. They demonstrate powerful methods for simultaneously plotting large data sets, creating your own map overlays, and harvesting and geocoding sets of addresses. You'll see how to set up alternative tile sets and where to access imagery to use for them. The authors even show you how to build your own geocoder from scratch for those high-volume batch jobs. As well as providing hands-on examples of real mapping projects, this book supplies a complete reference for the Maps API, along with the relevant aspects of JavaScript, CSS, PHP, and SQL. Visit the authors' website for additional tips and advice.

The New Advertising Valerie K. Jones, Ruth E. Brown Ph.D., Ming Wang, 2016-09-19. The era of big data has revolutionized many industries, including advertising. This is a valuable resource that supplies current, authoritative, and inspiring information about and examples of current and forward-looking theories and practices in advertising. The New Advertising: Branding, Content, and Consumer Relationships in the Data-Driven Social Media Era supplies a breadth of information on the theories and practices of new advertising from its origins, nearly a quarter of a century ago, through its evolution to current uses, with an eye to the future. Unlike most other books that focus on one niche topic, this two-volume set investigates the overall discipline of advertising in the modern context. It sheds light on significant areas of change against the backdrop of digital data collection and use. The key topics of branding, content, interaction, engagement, big data, and measurement are addressed from multiple perspectives. With contributions from experts in academia, as well as the advertising and marketing industries, this unique set is an indispensable resource that is focused specifically on new approaches to and forms of advertising. Readers will gain an understanding of the distinct shifts that have taken place in advertising They will be able to build their knowledge on frameworks for navigating and capitalizing on today's fragmented consumer focused digital media landscape and they will be prepared for what the future of advertising will likely bring
