The Missing Homework

mom called from downstairs, "You're going to be late!" night. This morning, I can't find them anywhere. I looked on my math folder, my desk, I looked under the covers. I looked on my shelf. No one yelled louder this time. I'm going to help. I thought as I rolled my eyes. more and more scared. My knees started shaking. Where is my closet. I looked under the dirty clothes from yesterday. my dog's bed. Still nothing. When I got to the bottom of the stairs, I was blocking my path. I saw my mom. She was sitting on the floor. I asked softly, "aren't you forgetting something?" asked. The hint of a smile in her voice. I saw a pink piece of paper fluttering in her hand. I picked it up. It said "Missing Homework". I put it in my backpack. I ran to my room. I looked under my bed. I found it. I was laughing. I checked my backpack. I found it. I was laughing.
