Costume Pravina Shukla,2016-04-06 A revealing look at how and why we dress up for events from historical reenactments to Halloween with an engaging writing style and rich illustrations. Choice: What does it mean to people around the world to put on costumes to celebrate their heritage, reenact historic events, assume a role on stage or participate in Halloween or Carnival? Self-consciously set apart from everyday dress, costume marks the divide between ordinary and extraordinary settings and enables the wearer to project a different self or special identity. In this fascinating book Pravina Shukla offers richly detailed case studies from the United States, Brazil, and Sweden to show how individuals use costumes for social communication and to express facets of their personalities. Revelatory, a wide-ranging book bringing attention to clothing as part of festivals and folk heritage events, pop culture conventions, and dramatic performances. Nuvo

Improvised Theatre and the Autism Spectrum Gary Kramer, Richie Ploesch,2021-11-29 This guide provides educators, professionals, and parents with an easy-to-follow and comprehensive approach to utilizing improvised theatre as a tool to teach social and communication skills to individuals on the autism spectrum. Opening with the philosophy of the curriculum and the considerations of mental health, play, and environmental factors on individuals with autism, the book then breaks down specific activities, suggests course sequencing, and explains how each activity works and applies to desired outcomes. Packed with dozens of activities and explanations, the book includes all the information necessary to design a full curriculum or create an at-home learning program for parents. By combining the fun and engaging atmosphere of improvisational theatre with the systematic teaching of social skills, professionals and parents can cultivate learning in a way that keeps students engaged while providing long-lasting improvements in social interaction, self-confidence, and communication. Great

The Professional Photographer ,1952 Safety Education ,1962 168 Hours Laura Vanderkam,2011-05-31 It s an unquestioned truth of modern life we are starved for time We tell ourselves we d like to read more get to the gym regularly try new hobbies and accomplish all kinds of goals But then we give up because there just aren t enough hours to do it all Or if we don t make excuses we make sacrifices taking time out from other things in order to fit it all in There has to be a better way and Laura Vanderkam has found one After interviewing dozens of successful happy people

she realized that they allocate their time differently than most of us Instead of letting the daily grind crowd out the important stuff they start by making sure there s time for the important stuff When plans go wrong and they run out of time only their lesser priorities suffer Vanderkam shows that with a little examination and prioritizing you ll find it is possible to sleep eight hours a night exercise five days a week take piano lessons and write a novel without giving up quality time for work family and other things that really matter
