Supported Literacy for Adolescents Catherine Cobb Morocco, Cynthia Mata Aguilar, Carol J. Bershad, 2010-02-12
Supported Literacy for Adolescents written by nationally recognized experts introduces an innovative and field tested instructional framework for preparing secondary students to succeed academically in a fast changing and globally networked world Filled with examples from science history literature and special education classrooms the book shows how teachers can enable diverse students including under performers to develop critical thinking and other essential competencies along with the multi literacy tools needed to engage in twenty first century content learning El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print ,2006

Resources in Education ,1988 Educational Computing Cleborne D. Maddux, Dee LaMont Johnson, Jerry Willis, 2001 This text focuses on general concepts theory and research on teaching learning and technology rather than on hands on assignments at the computer This book is most suitable for courses where students already have basic computing skills and the focus is on issues of integration of technology in the classroom or for courses where computing skills are taught simultaneously with the concepts issues and theories of integration This text is geared toward answering the question What would a teacher do differently if she he used computers in her his classroom The book links actual practice to underlying theories of both teaching and learning It helps students develop their own framework for thinking about educational computing

Christian Home Educators' Curriculum Manual Cathy Duffy, 1995 The premiere guide for choosing homeschool curriculum For beginners or veterans Cathy helps you wade through the curriculum jungle to choose what s right for each of your children Reviews of hundreds of books games videos computer programs parent helps and much much more for all subjects Learning styles Cathy helps you determine each child s learning style then choose methods and resources that fit each child What your child needs to know what is typically taught at each grade level Which resources allow your children to work independently which work best taught one on one Identifying and dealing with learning disabilities plus a list of consultants for extra help Testing the good and bad of testing different kinds of tests where to get them testing services Addresses phone numbers faxes e mail and web sites for all publishers and distributors How to consolidate your shopping and save shipping costs

Great Expectations ,2002 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993

Reading Process and Practice Constance Weaver, 2002 Weaver incorporates especially timely information accurate data informed critique and results of often ignored research to help teachers counteract government and corporate intrusion into classrooms

Reading Instruction for Classroom and Clinic Edward Bernard Fry, Edward Fry, 1972 Index to Media and Materials for the Mentally Retarded, Specific Learning Disabled, Emotionally Disturbed National Information Center for Special Education Materials, 1978

Fantastic Voyage ,2002 Technology, Reading, and Language Arts Jerry Willis, Elizabeth C. Stephens, Kathryn I. Matthew, 1996 Technology Reading and Language Arts explores ways in which preservice and inservice teachers can integrate technology into their reading instruction. It is organized around the dominant approaches to literacy instruction, links theory to practice in meaningful ways, and covers types of software and electronic resources and their use in the classroom rather than describing hundreds of different programs. This book embraces a solid conceptual framework to reading instruction and will be of particular interest to instructors who prefer constructivist, whole language, and language experience approaches to teaching reading. However, direct instruction approaches are also covered in two chapters.
