Changing Agency Policy An Incremental Approach:

Changing Agency Policy Ann Rae, Wanda Nicholas-Wolosuk, 2003 This text presents an action strategy model of social change that social workers can use to impact the policy process at the agency level to benefit clients Social workers must learn to advocate changes in policy at the agency level in order to benefit and empower consumers of social services The action strategy model will be useful for all social workers whether they are intervening at the agency level or at larger social systems such as regional or state levels Value issues ethical considerations and diversity permeate every aspect of policy making from formulation of the initial idea to implementation of a new policy This book discusses values and diversity inherent in the agency policy change process as well as how these relate to professional social work values Advocating for Children in Foster and Kinship Care Mitchell Rosenwald, Beth N. Riley, 2010-03-11 This book is the first to provide strategies for effective advocacy and placement within the foster care and kinship care systems It also takes a rare look at the dynamics of the foster and kinship relationship not just among children and the agency workers and service providers who intervene on their behalf but also between children and those who take in and care for them as permanency develops Drawing on their experience interacting with and writing about the institution of foster care Mitchell Rosenwald and Beth N Riley have composed a unique text that helps practitioners foster parents and relative caregivers realize successful transitions for youth especially considering the traumas these children may suffer both before and after placement Advocating for a child's best interests must begin early and remain consistent throughout assignment and adjustment For practitioners Rosenwald and Riley emphasize the best techniques for assessing a family's capabilities and for guiding families through the challenges of foster care Part one details the steps potential foster parents and kinship caregivers must take with the assistance of practitioners to prepare themselves for placement Part two describes tactics for successful advocacy within the court system social service agencies schools and the medical and mental health establishments Part three describes how to lobby for change at the agency and legislative levels as well as within a given community The authors illustrate recommendations through real life scenarios and devote an entire chapter to brokering positive partnerships among practitioners families and other teams working to protect and transition children Health Policy: Applications for Nurses and Other Healthcare Professionals Demetrius J. American Politics Ronald E. Pynn, 1993 The theme of the book is as alive today as it ever was The author continues to examine American politics from the perspective of change This edition makes clear that change involves a postmodern America where international events and nations help share our political environment But change also is examined as it affects our domestic politics and institutions Like any good textbook the book attempts to provide the basic information and understanding of how the American political system operates Since this book is intended for an introductory course in American government it provides basic information on the institutions and principles operating in the political system Pref

A Government Reinvented Christopher J. Bruce, Ronald David Kneebone, Kenneth James McKenzie, 1997 This volume is the culmination of an objective in depth study of the aggressive attack on the Alberta deficit launched by Premier Ralph Klein's government in 1993 Klein's was the first Canadian province to introduce drastic measures to eliminate its deficit solely by means of expenditure cuts After only two years a 3.4 billion deficit had become a 958 million surplus A Government Reinvented answers the question How was this goal achieved so quickly The research needed to answer this question was distributed among nine experts in the fields of economics education and political science The resulting papers were presented and critiqued at a conference in Banff Alberta in November 1995 A Government Reinvented features the revised research papers with parallel commentaries by specialists in economics law and public administration The book examines not only the Klein government s specific cost cutting strategies but also general topics such as theories of government budgeting and bureaucracy institutional design and public policy and the delivery of government services
