Reddit Halloween Costumes This Week:

Slender Man Is Coming Trevor J. Blank, Lynne S. McNeill, 2018-09-21 The essays in this volume explore the menacing figure of Slender Man the blank faced long limbed bogeyman born of a 2009 Photoshop contest who has appeared in countless horror stories circulated on and offline among children and young people Slender Man is arguably the best known example in circulation of creepypasta a genre derived from copypasta which in turn derived from the phrase copy paste As narrative texts are copied across online forums they undergo modification annotation and reinterpretation by new posters in a folkloric process of repetition and variation Though by definition legends deal largely with belief and possibility the crowdsourced mythos behind creepypasta and Slender Man suggests a distinct awareness of fabrication Slender Man is therefore a new kind of creation one intentionally created as a fiction but with the look and feel of legend Slender Man Is Coming offers an unprecedented folkloristic take on Slender Man analyzing him within the framework of contemporary legend studies creepypastas folk belief and children s culture This first folkloric examination of the phenomenon of Slender Man is a must read for anyone interested in folklore horror urban legends new media or digital cultures Contributors Timothy H Evans Andrea Kitta Mikel J Koven Paul Manning Andrew Peck Jeffrey A Tolbert Elizabeth Tucker Televised Presidential Debates in a Changing Media Environment Edward A. Hinck, 2018-11-26 This two volume set examines recent presidential and vice presidential debates addresses how citizens make sense of these events in new media and considers whether the evolution of these forms of consumption is healthy for future presidential campaigns and for democracy The presidential debates of 2016 underscored how television highlights candidates and campaigns messages which provide fodder for citizens widespread use of new media to talk back to campaigns and other citizens Social media will continue to affect the way that campaign events like presidential debates are consumed by audiences and how they shape campaign outcomes This two volume study is one of the first to examine the relationship between debates as televised events and events consumed by citizens through social media It also assesses the town hall debate format from 1992 to 2016 uses the lens of civil dialogue to consider how citizens watch the debates and considers the growing impact of new media commentary on candidate images that emerge in presidential and vice presidential debates Televised Presidential Debates in a Changing Media Environment features contributions from leading political communication scholars that illuminate how presidential debates are transforming from events that are privately contemplated by citizens to events that are increasingly viewed and discussed by citizens through social media The first volume focuses on traditional studies of debates as televised campaign events and the second volume examines the changing audiences for debates as they become consumed and discussed by viewers outside the traditional channels of newspapers cable news channels and campaign messaging Readers will contemplate questions of new forms problems and possibilities of political engagement that are resulting from citizens producing and consuming political messages in new media
