Indonesian Metal & Machineries Directory & Catalogue ,1995 Dare to Do Charlotte Butler,2002 Industrial Competitiveness of the Auto Parts Industries in Four Large Asian Countries Richard F. Doner,Gregory W. Noble,John Ravenhill,2006 Abstract Rationalization and stabilization following the Asian financial crisis of the late 1990s combined with the expansion and liberalization of regional and global trade to create significant parts industries in China Indonesia and the Republic of Korea Conventional policies of stabilization and liberalization however cannot fully explain growth patterns Japan and Korea grew into major players before liberalizing trade and investment while even after extensive liberalization Indonesia has yet to move from extensive to intensive growth These anomalies suggest that to explain success in the auto parts industry we need to move beyond liberalization to look at policies and institutions promoting economies of scale skill formation quality upgrading supplier linkage cooperation and innovation In Japan the regional and global leader innovative assemblers led industrial development and supported key suppliers but the government also supported diffusion of quality control techniques and new technology to small and medium enterprises and encouraged stable employment among core employees Korea remains weaker on both small and medium enterprise and employment fronts but government encouraged consolidation around a small number of business groups an extended period of protection and support for export promotion led to economies of scale Liberalization of foreign investment after the financial crisis helped ameliorate the excessive statism of earlier policies and strengthened the parts industry In China liberalization for WTO entry rapid expansion in demand and strong support by local governments encouraged a wave of foreign investment in both assembly and parts In contrast institutional weaknesses continue to constrain development opportunities in Indonesia Worldwide Automotive Supplier Directory ,2007 Femina ,1992 Tempo ,1993-08 Warta ekonomi ,1994 How Asia Got Rich Edith Terry,2015-05-20 Within a few short months in 1997 Asian economies that had been considered not only healthy but miraculous suddenly fell off a precipice as investors withdrew massively first from Asian currencies and in rapid order from equity markets across the region On October 27 1997 the turmoil in Asian markets spooked Wall Street in the largest single day decline in history a drop of 550 points It was predicted that the Asian crash could drive the US trade deficit from 191 billion to 300 billion by 1998 creating huge new tensions in relations with some of the largest US trading partners These wrenching changes following a generation of success raise numerous questions about the steps that led to the crisis its likely outcome and the limits and constraints of Asian capitalism Edith Terry presents a blow by blow account of the crisis beginning with the 1996 collapse of the Bangkok Bank of Commerce In her overview she links the fall of the Asian miracle with the theme of globalization arguing that the crisis demonstrates the urgency of dismantling restraints to trade investment and financial services and that the United States should take leadership in pushing for new and sweeping reform through the World Trade Organization and in bilateral negotiations with its trading partners The final section of the book

deals with the rise of the Asian miracle how the myth was created who created it why it succeeded for so long and is informed by analysis of the Japanese prototype Directory of Indonesian CCI Kamar Dagang dan Industri Indonesia, 1989

Production Networks in Asia and Europe Rogier Busser, Yuri Sadoi, 2004-02-24 This book explores Japanese investment in Europe and Southeast Asia in relation to the automobile industry In Part I the authors examine industrial organization and policy issues in Thailand Malaysia The Philippines and Indonesia looking at Japanese investment and the relative policy successes and failures in these host countries Part II looks at skill formation systems in the Japanese dominated automobile industry in Southeast Asia and in Part III the authors focus on the EU and the very different influence of Japanese investment
