

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

Background of the Study

Language in the Educational system has made its significant part in the characteristic forms of Childhood development. It is believed to play a central role in developing the learning of students and academic achievement (Bashar, 2017). However, the use of Mother Tongue in the Educational system has been a highly debated policy where people are concern about its long-term effect on students, especially on this globalized world where English is the standard language (Namanya, 2017).

In the present Educational system where majority of the countries all over the world uses Mother Tongue as medium of instruction, multilingual students in a classroom is really inevitable. Choosing what medium of instruction is a challenging factor for the teachers because it is still unclear if it would be based on the majority of the students using the same first languages (Nyika, 2014).

Countries entire the world have their own characteristics of language where through this they can understand each other and communicate effectively. Some may call it as their home language or

Corporate Social Responsibility and Brand Value in Luxury Ramon Bravo Gonzalez,2017-06-28 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2017 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade NA University of Glasgow Adam Smith Business School language English abstract Within luxury an area that is becoming increasingly important due to the visibility of this industry is Corporate Social Responsibility CSR While consumers are still not actively demanding CSR in luxury products and services and there is evidence that CSR is not a key area of interest for the luxury industry the luxury industry is becoming the target of non governmental organizations NGOs and other stakeholders interested in environmental and ethical practices Thus it is essential that luxury companies explore CSR implementation as neglecting to do so is likely to affect their brands and their brand value Due to the increasing relevance of CSR within luxury this research explores the role of CSR within luxury and how it together with other factors contributes to brand value in luxury An additional consideration is that despite the importance of brand value in luxury the industry does not normally measure manage and leverage brand value As a result it is also necessary to examine how brand value is perceived within luxury To meet these research goals a mixed methods approach was selected More specifically a theoretical framework was built with input from the literature and interviews with key interviewees from the luxury industry Then the theoretical framework was tested quantitatively The quantitative analysis was conducted with a dataset based on consumer panels and additional secondary data including Bloomberg CSRHub Dow Jones Sustainability Index DJSI Interbrand and company reports The results were subject to credibility checks with interviewees from the industry It is noteworthy to highlight that for the statistical analysis one of the largest datasets with US consumer data was used Similarly for the qualitative interviews representatives from some of the largest luxury companies in the world in terms of brand value and luxury stakeholders were recruited Research Method and Procedure in Agricultural Economics Social Science Research Council (U.S.). Hamburg vs. Munich: Which City Brand Has the Edge? Lilly Marlene Kunkel,2009-12-03 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2008 in the subject Tourism Miscellaneous grade 1 3 University of Brighton School of Service Management language English abstract The aim of this dissertation was to examine the development of Hamburg and Munich s destination branding strategies and whether German consumers can tell the difference between the two The findings indicated that the overall recognition of Munich among the participants of this study was better than that of Hamburg But it was also found that the recognition of Hamburg is based on more distinct recognition features than that of Munich and therefore it was concluded that it is more sustainable Regarding the branding of Hamburg and Munich it was found that the Hamburg brand is built on the city s core values and already positive organic image whereas the Munich brand was built mainly on artificial emotional values that contradict its rather negative organic image In the direct comparison of the participants images of the two cities Hamburg s image was found to be far better Together with the finding that the brand communication for Hamburg was more authentic and addressed its target groups more precisely than the brand communication for Munich the above mentioned findings led to the conclusion that the overall branding strategy for Hamburg is more successful than that for Munich
