Success In the Bakery Eatery Vincent Gabriel,2015-08-01 The Bakery Eatery marks the biggest change in the Asian diet Five years ago Asians ate rice only and bread was considered the food of the foreigners The French introduced the baguette the Portuguese the tart to Macau the Spanish introduced the Pandesal to the Philippines the Dutch the King s cake that became the Kueh Lapis All these introductions have been important but suddenly Asian affluence Need for variety in food Need for some food less starchy than rice have caused rich communities in the cities of Asia like Shanghai Tokyo Hong Kong Singapore Mumbai and the Arab Middle East to demand Western style bakery products There was a time when the common supermarket bread the tinned fruitcake was considered chic but not now You have this grand opportunity to use your baking skills and tap into this market I have taken the path of least resistance by introducing bread as the main item of breakfast and the Bakery Eatery as the place for all day breakfast I have also gone one little step forward by going into sandwiches pizzas savoury buns and others because this will be the direction you move to grow the bakery eatery into a wide spread food offering in Asia The potential for growth in bakery products is limitless as Asians become more globalized consumers They have been introduced to burgers to waffles to pancakes and sandwiches and they are asking for more What is needed is a creative baker with ideas to tempt the taste buds Asia has much contribute Asian spices have tickled the taste buds in the rice dishes With a little experimentation these spices can be applied to bread Asian beer and wine have been paired with rice dishes With some trial they can be paired with the bakery products Asian ways of preparing meat and fish and vegetables in curry soy sauce or roast or tandoors can produce items that can go with bakery products The curry puff is one simple example I wish you every SUCCESS on your bakery adventures and I know that the diet of Asia would be more varied because of you

James Beard Media Award in Food Issues and Advocacy The first and definitive history of the use of food in United States law and politics as a weapon of conquest and control a Fast Food Nation for the Black Lives Matter era In 1779 to subjugate Indigenous nations George Washington ordered his troops to ruin their crops now in the ground and prevent their planting more Destroying harvests is just one way that the United States has used food as a political tool Trying to prevent enslaved people from rising up enslavers restricted their consumption providing only enough to fuel labor Since the Great Depression school lunches have served as dumping grounds for unwanted agricultural surpluses From frybread to government cheese Ruin Their Crops on the Ground draws on over fifteen years of research to argue that U S food law and policy have created and maintained racial and social inequality In an epic sweeping account Andrea Freeman who pioneered the term food oppression moves from colonization to slavery to the Americanization of immigrant food culture to the commodities supplied to Native reservations to milk as a symbol of white supremacy She traces the long standing alliance between the government and food industries that have produced gaping racial health disparities and she shows how these practices continue to this day through the marketing of unhealthy goods that target marginalized communities causing diabetes high blood pressure and premature death Ruin Their Crops on the Ground is a groundbreaking addition to the history and politics of food It will permanently upend the notion that we freely and equally choose what we put on our plates
