

Poetry Analysis Practice

Learning Targets: I can determine each poem's meaning.

I can determine how poetic techniques create or enhance each poem's meaning or subject matter.

Directions: Read each of the poems in this packet several times. Analyze each poem as you read. Note words or phrases that suggest the poem's theme, note and explain poetic techniques used. Use your "Poetry Terms" notebook for ideas. Note any connections or reactions you have to each poem. Then, answer the questions that follow each poem (either on the piece or on a separate sheet).

Letter Burns for the Perfection of Paper —Martin Espada

As children, I watched other high school seniors at a printing plant that manufactured legal pads:
the paper
stacked several feet high and leaning on a rickety scaffold between the pages, then brushed and given up and down the stack, knights! knights required for the perfection of paper, removing the water damage caused by a leak, the books would slide along, suddenly cheap paper, but gather like stones that the winds of the sea, hidden then the great winds of France coming and both sides turned at the junction.

Two years later, in law school, I know that every legal pad was glued with the string of hidden cuts, that every open notebook was a part of the upturned and turning.
