Heir of Gold Olivia Hart,2021-04-08 Not all sins are forgivable and not every wound can heal I was a simple human girl when Sebastian the Prince of Shadows stole me away and thrust me into a world where magic is real Where danger lurks around every corner A place where a normal girl could become Queen because her wings are black Nothing is ever as simple as it seems Especially when it comes to the Fae courts A twisted web was woven a thousand years ago and now its dark secrets are being exposed Secrets that will shatter the reality that I ve built around me Around Sebastian The wounds of the past will be ripped open but my pain won't compare to Sebastian's when Seraphina gets her hands on him. Nothing will ever be the same now that I'm learning of his past. Soon everything will come to light. One painful memory at a time. I'll walk this path of truth and in the end I don't know what I will find. I'll have to decide where my allegiance and love will fall when everything is laid bare. When I find out just how twisted that web of lies was woven. Will the gift of love be worth the sacrifice.

in a tower overlooking the sea and he's perfectly content to keep it that way. There he can study the many mysteries of magic in peace and occasionally step in to help the little town flourish. He doesn't expect to tire of his life in Polimnos for a long time, but when he does, he can just gather up whatever remains of his hoard and fly away in the night to start a new life somewhere else. After all, dragons live forever. Base draconic instincts are beneath him. He has no need to plunder and steal to increase his wealth, no need to burn and pillage only for the sake of destruction. And he certainly doesn't believe in fated mates; no, the only being he needs is himself. Then, after almost thirty years of living in Polimnos, Adrissu meets the eyes of a handsome young warrior, and the world comes to a lurching stop around him. The pull of fate, something Adrissu thought was a myth amongst dragons, is unmistakable. But Ruan is everything he should shun: loud, bold, stubborn, and worst of all, utterly human, with a tiny mortal lifespan. Much as it pains Adrissu to stay away, he knows getting involved with a human is only going to cause him greater suffering later on. Unless, unless he's willing to break every rule of magic, he knows. Unless he's willing to take on the scorn of every other mage, mortal, or otherwise, to accomplish his goals. When Ruan accepts his plea to bind their souls together, even after death, his soul will be reborn, and they can always find each other in this life and the next, and the next, and the next.
