online traffic or visitors to your website or foot traffic to your streetside business. You have a couple of choices to get those eyes on your product: paid advertising or free social media marketing. If you are just starting out, I recommend the free services online, whether you are promoting a website or a physical store. The problem is keeping track, since there are so many different social media sites. Which ones should you sign up for? How many messages/comments should you post per day? How do you get people to see your social media input and then repost, retweet, like, and share? You will have to build slowly, create an audience, become part of groups, and definitely not spam your product all over the Internet. You will need to define your target audience, who would be the most responsive to whatever it is you are selling. These are social sites, so you need to socialize online. Get involved, read, and comment, and provide valuable input to the group. Once you have shown that you are a valuable member, then you can try to promote your product as a solution to a problem. You need to get organized. Why? Here is a list of the top 20 social media sites. And this is just the top 20. There are many, many more. You have to figure out which ones are right for you: Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Tumblr, LinkedIn, WhatsApp, Snapchat, Pinterest, Reddit, YouTube, Mix, Tagged, Nextdoor, Deviantart, Quora, Meetup, ReverbNation, Flixster, Goodreads, Twitch. You need to Social Media Management Journal, or you will go crazy trying to keep track of all things online. Here is what is included: Social Account Management, URL, Username, Password, Business Goals, Quarterly Business Breakdown, Business Goals, Quarterly Goals, Action Plan, Target Audience, Snapshot, Market Overview, Business Contacts, Monthly Budget, Month At A Glance, Monthly Statistics, Monthly Promotions, Growth Planner, Social Media Task Tracker, Content Planner, Blog, Social Media Content Planner, Advertising on Social Media, Social Account Management, Paid Sponsorships, Reviews, Social Media Content Planner, Blog Post Planner, Newsletter, Outreach, Advertising Ideas, LinkedIn Posts, Instagram Posts, Pinterest Vision Board, Planner, Pinterest Marketing Planner, Facebook Planner, Youtube Updates, Sponsored Posts, Hashtag Ideas, Social Media Update Tracker, Data Analysis, Monthly Stats, Progress Overview, Monthly Snapshot.
