Sahaj Path Rabindranath Tagore:

Rabindranath Tagore Patrick Colm Hogan, Lalita Pandit, 2003 This collection provides a lucid introduction for those unfamiliar with Tagore's work while simultaneously presenting important new scholarship and novel interpretation. Rabindranath Tagore is considered the greatest modern writer of India. He is also one of the great social and political figures in modern Indian history. After he received the Nobel Prize for literature in 1913, Tagore's reputation in the West has been based primarily on his mystical poetry. But beyond poetry, Tagore wrote novels of social realism treating nationalism, religious intolerance, and violence. He wrote analytic works on social reform, education, and science, even engaging in a brief dialogue with Albert Einstein. Without ignoring religion and mysticism, the essays in this collection concentrate on his other Tagore. They explicate Tagore's writings in relation to their historical and literary context and at the same time draw out those aspects of Tagore's work that continue to bear on contemporary society.

Rabindranath Tagore's Journey as an Educator

Mohammad A. Quayum, 2022-12-20 This book looks at Rabindranath Tagore's experiments and journey as an educator and the influence of humanistic worldviews, nationalism, and cosmopolitanism in his philosophy of education. It juxtaposes the educational systems and institutions set up by the British colonial administration with Tagore's pedagogical vision and schools in Santiniketan, West Bengal: Brahmacharya Ashram (1901), Visva Bharati University (1921), and Sriniketan Institute of Village Reconstruction (1922). An educational pioneer and a poet-teacher, Tagore combined nature and culture, tradition and modernity, East and West in formulating his educational methodology. The essays in this volume analyse the relevance of his theories and practice in encouraging greater cultural exchange and the dissolution of the walls between classrooms and communities. This book will be useful for scholars and researchers of education, Tagore studies, literature, cultural studies, sociology of education, South Asian studies, and colonial and postcolonial studies.

It also considers the significant issues of colonial adaptation, resistance, and rejection, and the post-imperial consequences of imperialism.
