Ernest D. Giglio

Brians Song Screenplay:

Brian's Song William Blinn,1972 Presents the script of the television film dramatizing Brian Piccolo s courageous battle with cancer      Brian's Song William Blinn,1972 The screenplay for the award winning television drama about football star Brian Piccolo who died at twenty six after a seven month battle against cancer      Brian's Song William Blinn,1983-08-01 The screenplay for the heartfelt five time Emmy Award winning movie Brian s Song about two Chicago Bears players who developed an unlikely lifelong friendship before an untimely tragedy ripped them apart Two men One named Gale Sayers the other Brian Piccolo They came from different parts of the country They competed fiercely for the same job One liked to talk the other was shy One was white the other black They made history as the first interracial roommates in the history of the NFL This is the story of how they came to know each other fight each other and help each other      Brian's Song William Blinn,2009-07-01 Based on the acclaimed television drama a story of friendship between two football players Chicago Bears Gale Sayers and Brian Piccolo      Inside Fame on Television Michael A. Hoey,2010-03-08 Fame the hugely popular 1980 musical film inspired by New York s High School of the Performing Arts was adapted as a weekly NBC television series in 1982 Though cancelled by the network after two seasons the TV version of Fame rose from the ashes to enjoy a long and successful run in syndication Among the series cast members were such gifted performers as Debbie Allen and Janet Jackson For five of the six years that Fame flourished on television Michael A Hoey was closely involved in the series production He has written a compelling behind the scenes history of the filming of the hit series incorporating interviews with a number of the creative principals as well as recounting his own experiences      Here's Looking at You Ernest D. Giglio,2005 Here s Looking at You Hollywood Film Politics examines the tangled relationship between politics and Hollywood which manifests itself in celebrity involvement in political campaigns and elections and in the overt and covert political messages conveyed by Hollywood films The book s findings contradict the film industry s assertion that it is simply in the entertainment business and examines how while the majority of Hollywood films are strictly commercial ventures hundreds of movies ranging from Birth of a Nation to Fahrenheit 9 11 do indeed contain political messages Here s Looking at You serves as a basic text for political film courses and as a supplement in American government and film studies courses and will also appeal to film buffs and people in the film industry      African-American Athletes Nathan Aaseng,2014-05-14 African Americans have been participating in sports in the United States since the 19th century long before many whites accepted them in this context Since World War II they have become recognized as competitors in such diverse fields as baseball boxing football track and field gymnastics tennis and golf The change from whites only participation to black dominance in many sports did not come painlessly or without the remarkable perseverance of individual athletes From the early years to the present day an impressive array of blacks have achieved success as athletes This book profiles more than 155 athletes Each enlightening biographical entry concentrates on the events in that person s life related to his or her accomplishments as an athlete and includes a list of further reading on that person An introduction bibliography subject indexes general index and 50 photographs round out the resource Book jacket

Why Docudrama? Alan Rosenthal,1999 Defining and examining the rationale of docudrama the nine essayists in the first part discuss the history and development of docudrama on TV and in film they also consider the place of truth in docudrama the main critiques of the form and the audience s susceptibilities and expectations In investigating the actual filmmaking process the eight essays in the second part focus on how docudrama as a commodity is created in the United States and England Part essay part case study and part interview this section also explores how Hollywood and the commercial networks as well as producers and writers work and think The final part presents an in depth critique of a number of controversial docudramas that have helped form and shape public opinion including Battleship Potemkin Roots Reds JFK Mississippi Burning Schindler s List and In the Name of the Father Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
