and Western Europe leaving a large void in terms of understanding the strategies of Asian companies This book aims to fill this void in the current offerings of textbooks Written by experts on Asian business it is a unique and comprehensive collection of cases about the strategies of Asian firms The cases are wide ranging covering a diverse range of issues geographic contexts industries and decision situations The rigor and depth of information included in each of the cases provides considerable versatility to educators in terms of usage at various levels The cases have been carefully chosen to represent the geographic and economic diversity of the different countries industries and firms within Asia

The Process of Internationalization in Emerging SMEs and Emerging Economies Hamid Etemad,2013-01-01 This book the fourth volume in the McGill International Entrepreneurship Series brings together 27 top scholars to explore the structural complexities evolving relations and dynamic forces that are shaping a new system of multi polar multi level international business relations It examines entrepreneurial efforts and relations in different national and corporate cultures each embedded in and also constrained by country specific socio economic structures and each vying for consumer attentions in competitive global markets The new millennia has experienced much rapid change much of it implicit intangible and not covered by the headlines of the popular press The bipolar business system of the 20th century that prioritized the relationship between firms and consumers of developed countries is giving way to an emerging multi polar and multi level international system that considers consumers and companies in developing economies as well In this book scholars from around the world analyze the nascent architecture and relations in this quickly evolving system They explore the structural complexities evolving relations and dynamic forces that are shaping and re shaping the new system and examine entrepreneurial efforts and relations that cement its structure The chapters in this volume portray the operating conditions of firms across 14 emerging country environments and industries ranging from basic foods and information technology to complex business processes Students and professors of international business entrepreneurship marketing and management studies will find this volume an indispensable addition to the literature

Casebook on General Management in Asia Pacific Dominique Turpin,Xiaobai Shen,1999-05-10 This text consists of cases of European Businesses in Asia Pacific Asian Businesses in Asia Pacific and Asian Businesses in Global Competition It covers a wide range of topics including human resources corporate culture strategic planning cross cultural marketing marketing strategy manufacturing alliances and partnership utilising information technologies entry into new markets and many more It will be relevant to many courses in the areas of general management international management and strategy

High Performance Companies Nitin Pangarkar,2011-10-11 The easy to adopt strategies that make companies from Coca Cola to Starbucks perennial over performers and that you can use too High Performance Companies complements the frameworks for strategy making detailed in many existing books proposing a number of rules of thumb or principles that companies can consider when making their day to day decisions which in turn will determine their actual strategies These principles traverse a wide range of scenarios such as strategic changes implemented by companies resource allocation decisions especially towards building durable assets and resource acquisition through inorganic means The book adopts a reader friendly approach by teasing out the lessons to be found in detailed cases studies from interesting companies The writing minimizes jargon while maintaining rigor especially with regard to the applicability and relevance of the strategic principles to different business contexts Cites extensive evidence in support of the proposed arguments without sacrificing readability Combines both short and long case studies within each chapter to demonstrate the general applicability of the principles presented Uses a variety of examples ranging from well known companies such as Coca Cola Singapore Airlines and Starbucks to relatively lesser known companies such as Illinois Tool Work SAS Institute and Heng Long Leather to show that the principles presented are applicable everywhere Providing valuable new insight into what makes a business successful and how to replicate this in a company of any size High Performance Companies is an essential addition to the library of any manager or student of business

Corporate Globalization Albrecht Rothacher,2005 This book sets out to examine the question Are there alternatives to US models of corporate governance for global players Based on well grounded concepts of distinct national and regional corporate cultures created by different patterns of communication negotiation and organisation 20 corporate histories 10 from Asia and 10 from Europe are reviewed Among these global players operating in different sectors like aviation telecommunications electronics household appliances steel automotives food beverages confectionery retailing finance advertising and branding the persistence of national corporate cultures clearly emerges Corporate globalisation will never become uniform Companies that ignore the strength of national ways of doing and organising their business will do so at their peril Most strikingly this happens during cross cultural mergers which almost inevitably will fail if done in a centralist fashion Only those companies that are aware and respect the persistent strength of the different national traditions of production trading and marketing will succeed

Business Strategy Irene Chow,2004 Offers a taste of the diverse management and economic climate in Asia by placing a magnifying glass over the economies of Asia It first develops a framework for understanding business strategy then provides a detailed profile of Asian countries with spotlights on their business characteristics and how that affects the implementation of strategy

Dynamics of International Business: Asia-Pacific Business Cases Prem Ramburuth,Christina Stringer,Manuel Serapio,2013-07-08 Dynamics of International Business Asia Pacific Business Cases brings the challenges and complexities of the contemporary international business environment into the classroom These authentic case studies based on recent research and events enable students to engage with the economic social political and intercultural factors that impact on international business and understand how these factors are addressed in the real world Designed to facilitate a problem based learning approach the cases in this book draw on a diverse range of businesses and industries from seafood to video games to renewable energy illustrate fundamental themes and concerns within global business including ethics sustainability emerging markets and cultural and legal differences span many countries across the Asia Pacific region include discussion questions that encourage students to apply international business theory in the context of realistic scenarios include references and suggestions for further reading Extra resources for instructors including case synopses and learning objectives are available on the companion website at www.cambridge.edu.au/academic/internationalbusiness
