Celebrity, Social Media Influencers and Brand Performance Saloomeh Tabari,Qing Shan Ding,2024-08-27 Celebrity endorsement has shown to be an effective way enhancing brand related attitudes reinforcing behavioural intentions and shaping brand perceptions Indeed companies devote a lot of resources on celebrity endorsement to exploit emotional bonds between consumers and brands in order to accomplish their desired brand image and increase brand awareness differentiation and brand loyalty In short brands that are endorsed by a favourite celebrity and influencer become more credible and trustworthy This edited book examines this new era of marketing by focusing on the impact of employing celebrities SMIs and virtual influencers to endorse the brand as a key advertising tactic In particular it focuses on the rise of social media usage and the corresponding changes in advertising strategies in the digital era As well as exploring this rise of celebrity influencers and their value the book also takes a critical lens examining their roles in fuelling the growth of materialism causing mental health issues among adolescents and aiding the development of fast fashion With this balanced and comprehensive approach this book is an essential resource for anyone interested in the future of advertising

Cultural Funding and Financing Carolina Dalla Chiesa, Anders Rykkja, 2026-01-03 This edited open access volume offers a comprehensive analysis of new and traditional funding models for the arts and culture In the economic and political contexts of reduced art funding the book takes an objective pragmatic and heterodox approach to demonstrate how financial sustainability in the arts can be achieved via a range of top down and bottom up mechanisms which are valued either in terms of institutional or crowd based legitimacy The book aims to offer both a scholarly interpretation of established and emerging funding and financing practices within the cultural and creative sector as well as guidance for artists creators and cultural programmers through various case studies and multiple examples of current practices Contributions are divided into three sections Section one outlines the most important traditional tools and models while the second part covers the key contemporary practices premised on the use of digital platforms and the final part introduces several case studies The objective of this volume is to demonstrate that while traditional models show no signs of being supplanted digitalisation has facilitated the emergence of new forms Such an evolution has consequences for creators of works as well as those willing to support them The contributions address these issues by investigating and analysing the individual or combined adoption of traditional and new funding and financing models in a post digital context
