Passer, Ronald E. Smith, 2003-12 This textbook reflects the experiences of Michael Passer and Ronald Smith as faculty who have taught the introductory psychology course several dozen times and earlier as students whose own interest in psychology was sparked by instructors who brought the introductory course to life Four goals have influenced their writing of this text to show students that the world of behavior is fascinating to help students think critically and analytically about behavior dispelling common myths to convey the intellectual excitement of studying behavior with scientific rigor and to apply knowledge obtained from scientific inquiry to real world problems Users and reviewers of Passer and Smith's text overwhelmingly praise the authors for succeeding at these goals Passer's Psychology Michael W. Passer, Ronald E. Smith, 2001-06 Michael Passer and Ronald Smith pooled their 25 years of combined experience in teaching Introduction to Psychology to bring you an innovative new approach to unveiling the science of Psychology The goal of Psychology Frontiers and Applications is to share with students the excitement the authors have found in the study of behavior and to make the course more exciting for you to teach To achieve this goal Drs Passer and Smith present Psychology from a perspective that repeatedly emphasizes the linkages between basic science and applied science Students discover the connections between theoretical research findings and practical solutions to problems in society This approach teaches students to think more like psychologists viewing the world of behavior in a more analytical sophisticated way which includes considering the multiple factors that result in behavior
