analyzes the trajectory and evolution of public relations in China from the very start when the reform and opening policy was adopted in 1978 to the present. The book will help both established and new scholars and practitioners in the field to understand the changing nature of public relations in China. It offers a unique perspective by placing the discussion of the development of public relations in the general context of the changes and development of China as a whole and in relation to the changing status of public relations around the world. Accordingly, readers will not only gain a more in-depth understanding of the history of the field but also of the political, economic, societal, cultural, and scientific development of China in modern times.

Global Knowledge Work Katerina Nicolopoulou, Mine Karata-Ozkan, Ahu Tatli, 2011. Global Knowledge Work is an up-to-date account of theoretical approaches and empirical research in the multi-disciplinary topic of global knowledge workers from a relational and diversity perspective. This informative volume includes contributions from international scholars and practitioners who have been working with the concept of global knowledge workers from a number of different perspectives, including personal and academic life trajectories. They reveal that the relational framework of the three dimensions of analysis—macro, meso, micro—is relevant for analyzing the phenomenon of global knowledge workers as expertise and specialised knowledge and its innovative application together with the attraction and retention of talent. Remain key topics in the current socioeconomic conditions. With a wealth of original research, this book will strongly appeal to researchers, practitioners, academics, and managers in the fields of diversity, organizational studies, knowledge management, and human resources.
