Bronxwood Coe Booth,2011-09-01 The acclaimed author of TYRELL and KENDRA returns to PUSH to continue Tyrell's astonishing story. Tyrell's father is just out of jail and Tyrell doesn't know how to deal with that. It's bad enough that his brother Troy is in foster care and that his mother is no help whatsoever. Now there's another thing up in his face just when he's trying to settle down. Tyrell's father has plans of his own and doesn't seem to care whether or not Tyrell wants to go along with them. Tyrell can see the crash that's coming with his dad with the rest of his family with the girls he's seeing but he's not sure he can stop it. Or if he even wants to. More Mirrors, Windows, and Sliding Doors Steven T. Bickmore,Shanetia P.

Clark,2022-04-18 This is the third book in a three volume series celebrating and examining about the work of 11 of the most prominent African American authors since 2000. The eleven identified authors are Andrea Davis Pinkney, Coe Booth, Sheila P. Moses, Kwame Alexander, Kekla Magoon, Jason Reynolds, Varian Johnson, Renee Watson, Tiffany D. Jackson, Nnedi Okorafor, and Lamar Giles. These authors build on the work of the authors in books two and three. The chapter authors, librarians and established and emerging scholars in the field of young adult literature survey the work of each author, their accolades, and how audiences responded to their work. Each chapter highlights a single work and discusses how it might be taught in a classroom with a focus on introductory, during, and concluding activities for individuals, small groups, and the whole class. This volume is a resource for classroom teachers, teacher educators, reading specialists, librarians, and other educators who study research and read young adult literature. Even more importantly, it can be a resource for students who read and study these authors at the secondary and collegiate level. This is especially true when the current moment in the U.S. shows facing anew concerns of voting rights and discussion of how and when Critical Race Theory or any discussion of Race might take place in a classroom.

Kendra Coe Booth,2010-01-01 The acclaimed author of TYRELL returns to PUSH with a striking novel about a mother and daughter who are only fourteen years apart but need to learn to understand each other before it's too late. Kendra's mom, Renee, had her when she was only 14 years old. Renee and her mom made a deal: Renee could get an education and Kendra would live with her grandmother. But now Renee's out of grad school and Kendra's in high school and getting into some trouble herself. Kendra's grandmother lays down the law: It's time for Renee to take care of her daughter. Kendra wants this badly, even though Renee keeps disappointing her. Being a mother isn't easy, but being a daughter can be just as hard. Now it's up to Kendra and Renee to make it work.
