Ice Cream

When you think about different flavors of ice cream, you may imagine chocolate, vanilla, and strawberry. But have you ever heard of ice cream with lobster in it? A shop in New York tries out new one-of-a-kind ice cream flavors each day. Some of their creations include Garlic Ice Cream, Pizza Ice Cream, and Corn on the Cob Ice Cream. For Thanksgiving, you can have your turkey dinner and dessert all in one at another New York shop that makes Brown Turkey Ice Cream. If you are feeling really adventurous, you can try you to try Ramen Town, an amusement park in Tokyo, Japan. They serve Ramen Cow Tongue Ice Cream, and even Ramen.

Starting with Comprehension Andie Cunningham,Ruth Shagoury,2005 It is never too early to start comprehension instruction In fact reading begins with meaning making Andie Cunningham and Ruth Shagoury designed a reading program for five and six year olds based on this premise Most of the students in Andie s Portland Oregon kindergarten class have little or no alphabet knowledge when they enter the classroom in the fall English is a second or third language for many of the children in this low income neighborhood Through research based principles carefully structured routines and innovative activities even the youngest learners can develop comprehension skills from their first days in school The children in Starting with Comprehension are grappling with school culture for the first time and learning to work with classmates who speak a variety of different languages These emergent readers learn to present their understanding of what they read through writing talk movement and art Kindergartners and preschoolers are different from readers who know how to decode texts Andie and Ruth show how comprehension skills can be nurtured and strengthened even before decoding begins In this classroom meaning making becomes part of community building as children link reading thinking and communicating
