From Morality to Mayhem Julian Lovelock,2018-10-25 The stories we read as children are the ones that stay with us the longest and from the nineteenth century until the 1950s stories about schools held a particular fascination Many will remember the goings on at such earnest establishments as Tom Brown s Rugby St Dominic s Greyfriars the Chalet School Malory Towers and Linbury Court In the second part of the twentieth century with more liberal social attitudes and the advent of secondary education for all these moral tales lost their appeal and the school story very nearly died out More recently however a new generation of compromised schoolboy and schoolgirl heroes Pennington Tyke Tiler Harry Potter and Millie Roads have given it a new and challenging relevance Focusing mainly on novels written for young people From Morality to Mayhem charts the fall and rise of the school story from the grim accounts of Victorian times to the magic and mayhem of our own age In doing so it considers how fictional schools not only reflect but sometimes influence real life This captivating study will appeal to those interested in children s literature and education both students and the general reader taking us on a not altogether comfortable trip down memory lane Ink Jonathan Maberry,2020-11-17 From New York Times bestselling author Jonathan Maberry comes a standalone supernatural thriller Ink about a memory thief who feeds on the most precious of dreams Tattoo artist Patty Cakes has her dead daughter s face tattooed on the back of her hand Day by day it begins to fade taking with it all of Patty s memories of her daughter All she s left with is the certain knowledge she has forgotten her lost child The awareness of that loss is tearing her apart Monk Addison is a private investigator whose skin is covered with the tattooed faces of murder victims He is a predator who hunts for killers and the ghosts of all of those dead people haunt his life Some of those faces have begun to fade too destroying the very souls of the dead All through the town of Pine Deep people are having their most precious memories stolen The monster seems to target the lonely the disenfranchised the people who need memories to anchor them to this world Something is out there Something cruel and evil is feeding on the memories erasing them from the hearts and minds of people like Patty and Monk and others Ink is the story of a few lonely damaged people hunting for a memory thief When all you have are memories there is no greater horror than forgetting

Laura Savage Rains EdD Founder of WomensMinistryCoach.com Author of the multi award winning book God Chose a Woman First. I was born at the end of the Great Depression eight years before the United States became involved in World War II. In our small town caught between the pain of depression and the horrors of war almost everybody went to church. Much of the preaching I heard as a small boy was judgmental, harsh and unforgiving. People were as likely to be scared out of hell as loved into heaven. Although tempted to adopt the pulpit style of older preachers I soon learned that people were hungry for a more hopeful message. The ministry of Jesus was characterized by the magnetic drawing power of the cross and his encouragement to Go and sin no more was a welcome message of forgiveness. When my pulpit ministry was curtailed by age and illness I began the email ministry of encouragement. This book is a compilation of some of those messages I hope and pray that you will find in every chapter and every sentence truly encouraging words.

Exploring Evil Gloria Cigman,2002 This book takes as its terrain the changing perceptions of evil across centuries of English Literature. Starting with the models of conflict and malevolence in the Book of Genesis its paths are the themes of ambition, desire, survival, belief and knowledge from the Middle Ages to the present day. As if looking through both ends of a telescope it moves forward in time propelled by what has been left behind and by our knowledge of what will follow. Because the cinema is so vibrant an archive of shifting images of ourselves selected films are viewed alongside the narrative, fiction, drama and poetry of each chapter. Throughout the book resumes and quotations bring as yet unread writings into the same line of vision as all the others. Exploring evil confronts the diversity of evils reflected in literary depictions of human behaviour and finds two constant elements: the abuse of free will and a denial of the humanity of others. The author argues that however much its forms and objectives may change the supremacy of evil in the life of the imagination remains unassailable.

Bagpipes, Planes, and Strings Susanne Kessarar,2013-05-07 Author Susanne Kessarar knew from the miraculous births of her children that God was speaking to her early on about letting go but like most parents she wanted to cling tightly and was not prepared for the day they grew up. In Bagpipes, Planes, and Strings she talks about how she fought to surrender to God's will through a series of events. First she had a scary ordeal with skin cancer. A few short years later she found herself facing an emergency hysterectomy. Next she struggled to release her daughter to pursue a calling to go on a mission in South America. She later lost her father to congestive heart failure. When her family decided to sell their house and move she was finally willing to let go and realize that God had strengthened her to face her life challenges one step at a time. Bagpipes, Planes, and Strings refers to sounds that will forever stir Susannes soul and remind her of each of her painful journeys of letting go.
