The End of the Alphabet Isabel Brown,2024-03-19 A rising Gen Z star empowers members of her generation to embrace conservative values and to rise up and fight for the future and those who will come after us Gen Z has the power to change the world As the largest emerging demographic in American history Gen Z is at the center of a cultural shift one that will define the direction of our country for generations to come Intellectually curious culturally courageous and unafraid to push societal boundaries Gen Z is ready to embrace leadership as the most educated generation in history These young and often underestimated Americans are here to fight for a better future and we won t wait for permission to lead Rising content creator Isabel Brown is smart driven and passionate a strong champion for truth in America She fervently believes that Gen Z has the power the potential and the opportunity to define the cultural direction of America The End of the Alphabet is a rallying cry for Gen Z to embrace traditional values in a new age way and step up to make our voices heard Although taking an active role in culture and politics is nothing new for young people today s youth face overwhelming push back from older demographics Looked down on by those who came before us as too young too naive and too unique to impact our society Gen Z ers are instead told to sit down and shut up until they have earned enough life experience to lead This view of Gen Z is crippling and deeply ignorant of the cultural shifts we have and will experience in the coming decades as Gen Z begins to step into positions of power and leadership So who is Gen Z What does the future of our nation and conservatism look like with Gen Z at the helm Read this book to find out

Connected Histories Eva Pfanzelter, Dirk Rupnow, Éva Kovács, Marianne Windsperger,2024-09-23 The World Wide Web WWW and digitisation have become important sites and tools for the history of the Holocaust and its commemoration Today some memory institutions use the Internet at a high professional level as a venue for self presentation and as a forum for the discussion of Holocaust related topics for potentially international transcultural and interdisciplinary user groups At the same time it is not always the established institutions that utilise the technical possibilities and potential of the Internet to the maximum Creative and sometimes controversial new forms of storytelling of the Holocaust or more traditional ways of remembering the genocide presented in a new way with digital media often come from people or groups who are not in the realm of influence of the large memorial sites museums and archives Such private stagings have experienced a particular upswing since the boom of social media This democratisation of Holocaust memory and history is crucial though it is as yet undecided how much it will ultimately reinforce old structures and cultural regional or other inequalities or reinvent them The Digital space as an arbitrary and limitless archive for the mediation of the Holocaust spanning from Russia to Brazil is at the centre of the essays collected in this volume This space is also considered as a forum for negotiation a meeting place and a battleground for generations and stories and as such offers the opportunity to reconsider the transgenerational transmission of trauma family histories and communication Here it becomes evident there are new societal intentions and decision making structures that exceed the capabilities of traditional mass media and thrive on the participation of a broad public

Partisan Rhetoric and Polarization Robert X. Browning, 2024-12-15 Partisan Rhetoric and Polarization The Year in C SPAN Archives Research Volume 10 features chapters written from a variety of perspectives that address divisions in American politics The topics range widely including TikTok abortion the middle class the January 6 riot and partisan rhetoric in Congress The unifying theme of the volume is that each author uses C SPAN videos to examine how members of Congress and other elites speak and act on these issues Two other thoughtful pieces examine Supreme Court justices speaking off the bench and emotional reactions in presidential debates Partisan Rhetoric and Polarization provides context to understand how the partisan split in American politics is reflected and evidenced in even the highest political institutions Congress the presidency and the Supreme Court

Jolted Anthony Klotz, 2026-03-17 The new science of why we quit whether we should and how to make the right choices for our work and lives by the organizational psychologist who predicted the Great Resignation Most of us are just one event away from leaving our job Conventional wisdom and lists of the top reasons people quit their jobs would have us believe that people quit when the toxic elements of their jobs grow too big or when they spot a better professional opportunity But that s only half the story In reality quitting is often triggered by a single event inside or outside our jobs that stops us in our tracks and causes us to rethink our relationship with work These events are what organizational psychologist Anthony Klotz calls jolts and they are the most underacknowledged realities in our work lives today Jolts represent pivotal moments in our careers and yet all too often we respond to them in ways that harm our well being and success In Jolted Klotz breaks down the different types of jolts we encounter and provides a road map to help us navigate them in ways that improve
