

Reflective Journal on Clinical Issues

Introduction

Nursing is a multifaceted working field in which makes nurses face many challenging issues during their clinical experience. Reflective practice is one of the major tools within the quiver of an experienced nurse which can be used as a powerful weapon against these multiple clinical issues. Reflective practice helps a nurse to learn from experiences through careful evaluation and analysis of incidents so that she can deal with a new similar situation in a better way. This writing discusses 3 clinical issues using Gibb's model of reflective writing and they are, inadequate staffing, misunderstanding of patient symptoms,s and problems associated with telephonic advice, supported by appropriate journal articles.

Inadequate Nurse–Patient Ratio

Staff shortage is one of the major problems faced by many hospitals in India, especially in public hospitals. Being a nurse experienced in India, I have experienced the problems related to this many times. The following is one of those issues. Around five years back, when I was a newly appointed nurse in one of the public hospitals, I was forced to give care for 40 patients alone due to a staff shortage. I was thinking that, if I cannot complete my routine work faster, I won't be able to receive new admissions. Immediately after handing it over, I started checking vital signs beginning from bed no:1. I was in a hurry to complete my work as there was no one else to help me. When I approached the last patient in the ward, I have noticed that the patient looked irritable
