Territorial Terrors Gerhard Stilz, 2007 Mathematics in Postmodern American Fiction Stuart J. Taylor, 2024-04-23 This book delivers an innovative critical approach to better understand U S fiction of the information age and argues that in the last eighty years fiction has become increasingly concerned with its representations of mathematical ideas images and practices In so doing this book provides a fuller transnational account of the place of mathematics in understanding mathematically informed novels Literature and science studies have acknowledged and situated historical points of cultural crossover by emphasising mathematics within this larger intellectual context and not as an unlikely and alien adjunct to post war culture this monograph clarifies how mathematically informed postmodern fictions work in a cognate fashion to other fields undergoing structuralist revolutions This is especially evident in fiction by the key mathematically literate Postmodern authors upon whom this study focuses namely Thomas Pynchon Don DeLillo and David Foster Wallace through which recent the technological revolutions facilitated by mathematics manifest in cultural discourse

Political Economy and the Novel Sarah Comyn, 2018-10-04 Political Economy and the Novel A Literary History of Homo Economicus provides a transhistorical account of homo economicus economic man demonstrating this figure s significance to economic theory and the Anglo American novel over a 250 year period Beginning with Adam Smith s seminal texts Theory of Moral Sentiments and The Wealth of Nations and Henry Fielding s A History of Tom Jones this book combines the methodologies of new historicism and new economic criticism to investigate the evolution of the homo economicus model as it traverses through Ricardian economics and Jane Austen s Sanditon J S Mill and Charles Dickens engagement with mid Victorian dualities Keynesianism and Mrs Dalloway s exploration of post war consumer impulses the a moralistic discourses of Friedrich von Hayek and Ayn Rand s Atlas Shrugged and finally the virtual crises of the twenty first century financial market and DonDeLillo s Cosmopolis Through its sustained comparative analysis of literary and economic discourses this book transforms our understanding of the genre of the novel and offers critical new understandings of literary value cultural capital and the moral foundations of political economy

The Urban Uncanny Lucy Huskinson, 2016-04-28 The Urban Uncanny explores through ten engaging essays the slippage or mismatch between our expectations of the city as the organised and familiar environments in which citizens live work and go about their lives and the often surprising and unsettling experiences it evokes The city is uncanny when it reveals itself in new and unexpected light when its streets buildings and people suddenly appear strange out of place and not quite right Bringing together a variety of approaches including psychoanalysis historical and contemporary case study of cities urban geography film and literary critique the essays explore some of the unsettling mismatches between city and citizen in order to make sense of each and to gauge the wellbeing of city life more generally Essays examine a number of cities including Edmonton London Paris Oxford Las Vegas Berlin and New York and address a range of issues including those of memory death anxiety alienation and identity Delving into the complex repercussions of contemporary mass urban development The Urban Uncanny opens up the pathological side of cities both real and imaginary This interdisciplinary collection provides unparalleled insights into the urban uncanny that will be of interest to academics and students of urban studies urban geography psychoanalysis cultural studies social studies and film studies and to anyone interested in the darker side of city life

Transnational Politics in the Post-9/11 Novel
Joseph Conte, 2019-11-22 Transnational Politics in the Post 9 11 Novel suggests that literature after September 11 2001 reflects the shift from bilateral nation state politics to the multilateralism of transnational politics While much of the criticism regarding novels of 9 11 tends to approach these works through theories of personal and collective trauma this book argues for the evolution of a post 9 11 novel that pursues a transversal approach to global conflicts that are unlikely to be resolved without diverse peoples willing to set aside sectarian interests These novels embrace not only American writers such as Don DeLillo Dave Eggers Ken Kalfus Thomas Pynchon and Amy Waldman but also the countervailing perspectives of global novelists such as J M Coetzee Orhan Pamuk Mohsin Hamid and Laila Halaby These are not novels about terrorism nor do they seek comfort in the respectful cloak of national mourning Rather they are instances of the novel in terror which recognizes that everything having been changed after 9 11 only the formally inventive presentation will suffice to acknowledge the event's unrepresentability and its shock to the political order
