The Mother of All Booklists William Patrick Martin, 2014-12-24 The Mother of All Booklists The 500 Most Recommended Nonfiction Reads for Ages 3 to 103 is written for parents grandparents and teachers unfamiliar with the bewildering array of award and recommended reading lists This book is a long overdue composite of all the major booklists It brings together over 100 of the most influential book awards and reading lists from leading magazines newspapers reference books schools libraries parenting organizations and professional groups from across the country The Mother of All Booklists is to reading books what the website Rotten Tomatoes is to watching movies the ultimate one stop synthesizing resource for finding out what is best Mother is not the opinion of one book critic but the aggregate opinion of an army of critics Organized into five age group lists each with one hundred books preschoolers ages 3 5 early readers ages 5 9 middle readers ages 9 13 young adults ages 13 17 and adults ages 18 The Mother of All Booklists amalgamates the knowledge of the best English language booklists in the United States including a few from Canada and Great Britain Each of the 500 books is annotated describing the contents of the book and suggesting why the book is unique and important Each includes a picture of the book cover

Literature and Social Media Bronwen Thomas, 2020-01-31 From Instapoetry to BookTube contemporary literary cultures and practices are increasingly intertwined with social media In this lively and wide ranging study Bronwen Thomas explores how social media provides new ways of connecting with and rediscovering established literary works and authors while also facilitating the emergence of unique and distinctive forms of creative expression The book takes a 360 approach to the subject combining analysis of current forms and practices with an examination of how social media fosters ongoing collaborative discourse amongst both informal and formal literary networks and demonstrating how the participatory practices of social media have the potential to radically transform how literature is produced shared and circulated The first study of its kind to focus specifically on social media Literature and Social Media provides a timely and engaging account of the state of the art while interrogating the rhetoric that so often accompanies discussion of the new in this context Good Housekeeping, 2007
