At the intersection of performance studies and food studies this pioneering collection explores food as more than just a subject of study it s a medium of artistic expression communication and embodied knowledge Drawing from a decade of collaborative work through the American Society for Theatre Research working group 2014 2023 this volume brings together diverse voices examining how food shapes and reflects our understanding of identity culture and sustainability in an increasingly complex world The collection stands out for its innovative approach to thinking with food moving beyond traditional academic analysis to engage with food as an active participant in performance and meaning making Contributors explore how food practices inform our relationships with place community and environment while addressing urgent questions about global foodways and survival Through a combination of scholarly research and artistic exploration these essays reveal how food serves as both a lens for understanding contemporary challenges and a tool for imagining new possibilities in performance sustainability and cultural exchange This interdisciplinary work offers vital insights for scholars artists and practitioners interested in the intersection of performance food studies cultural theory and environmental sustainability providing fresh perspectives on how food based knowledge and practice can inform our response to global challenges      Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
