Their Lives, Their Stories Richard Lister,2019-12-19 The only third person account describing the lives and work of NFL game officials There would be no NFL football without him He is an accountant educator lawyer sales executive policeman dentist business owner corporate executive or fireman He is an NFL game official His life is a little like Clark Kent s he lives a mainstream life Monday through Friday On Sunday he puts on a uniform lending impressive power He makes decisions affecting lives careers and fortunes On his best day he is anonymous and unappreciated on his worst he is despised He does a job from which fans coaches players and even he himself demand perfection He will never achieve it Though having an essential part in a popular game he prefers a low profile His anonymity evokes curiosity about who he really is The Third Team takes stories and reflections from interviews with 25 past and current National Football League officials including some among football s greatest to give the reader a look into a job that is far more exacting than even the most astute fan appreciates The stories reveal the kind of person who

reaches the pinnacle Though competitive wanting to be the best among peers each man recognizes that his crew s performance has higher value than individual achievement Becoming a team player will bond each crewmember into a powerful brotherhood Their stories ranging from humorous to poignant give the reader insight into those working to keep NFL playing fields level for both teams The perspectives are complemented by observations from former NFL coaches Tony Dungy Steve Mariucci Herman Edwards and Jerry Glanville along with former player and current television analyst Matt Millen The Third Team will appeal to the fan who is interested in the game s inner workings and who will appreciate stories from behind the scenes and inside the country s most popular spectator sport

The Q Factor Brian Billick, James Dale, 2020-09-29 Brian Billick Super Bowl winning coach and current analyst for the NFL network takes on the 2018 draft class of quarterbacks and follows them for two years identifying the tangibles and intangibles of success in search of the key to better predicting who will make it as a top ranked NFL franchise QB There are elite athletes in every sport people who possess tangible and intangible qualities that allow them to overcome daunting odds spot opportunity in the midst of adversity and turn defeat into victory No position embodies this dynamic more than football quarterbacks and nothing is a greater test of performance than the NFL The tangibles metrics stats ratings bowl games championships are critical to evaluation But they re not enough Every year highly rated college quarterbacks are analyzed critiqued hyped up and or doubted and those who manage to survive the scrutiny are drafted early Some of those early picks make it to the top some end up journeymen and some just wash out Why What separates the elites from the pack In THE Q FACTOR former NFL coach Brian Billick takes the highly promising 2018 NFL quarterback Draft class the most touted class since 2004 Manning Roethlisberger Rivers and 1983 Elway Kelly Marino and measures the top five quarterback picks to gauge how why and if they succeed They are all first rounders all with sterling college credentials all talented athletes all taken by teams betting their futures One or maybe two could go on to greatness But which ones and why Could the prediction process be better Are the experts looking at the wrong factors How do we find the best of the best That s what THE Q FACTOR explores and finally explains
